Responsibilities

My responsibilities are to have prepared relevant and meaningful content that fulfills Camosun College's learning outcomes for this course, be available to answer your questions or offer further guidance, and provide detailed and timely feedback that justifies your scores and allows you to grow as an effective communicator.

Your responsibilities are to be on time and in full attendance for all classes, be prepared to participate in learning activities, meet due dates, and be aware of and adhere to Camosun College's policies and procedures (i.e. computer usage, copyright, plagiarism policies).

Your presence and preparation are required to succeed in this this course:

- Assigned homework is always due at the start of the next class. However, if you miss a class, then you can still get credit for the previous class' homework by showing it to me in the very next class you attend (your initiative...I will not be following up on homework from missed classes). You will not get credit for any homework assigned in the class that you missed unless you have a signed medical excuse.
- Unexcused late assignments will be accepted but at a 20% penalty per day (not class).

Be sure to ask for help when needed. I have office hours, and I'm more than happy to meet outside of those via Skype/FaceTime or respond to questions over e-mail.

Related is the topic of plagiarism. Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of others as your own. Plagiarism is a serious academic offence – a form of cheating. All sources of ideas and information not primarily your own must be appropriately documented according to MLA guidelines. A first offense will result in a required rewrite and 20% deduction. A second offense will result in a grade of 0 with no rewrite. Anything beyond that will mean failing the course (regardless of current grade) and referral to school Dean. Please see Student Conduct Policy and check out this interactive video: <http://camosun.ca/services/library/plagiarism/>
