Course location and times

Tuesday 2:30 PM - 3:50 PM, Wilna Thomas, Room 202 Lab Ewing 110 4:00-4:50
Thursday 2:30 PM - 4:50 PM, Wilna Thomas, Room 202,

Credits and Pre-requisites

The course is worth two credits. The pre-requisite is ELD 050 or assessment

Required Text

Sarosy, Peg and Kathy Sherak. Lecture Ready 2. Toronto: Oxford University Press, 2006.

Required Materials

- Three ring binder with lined loose leaf paper.
- 2 file folders (one for LL and one for IL)
- Headset with microphone for the Speaking Lab – you need this EVERY Friday

Specifications for the headset and microphone:

* Both MUST HAVE a 3.5 mm (1/8") stereo mini-plugs (USB headsets don't work with Can8)

* It needs to have a long enough cord: min 1.5 meters of cord is best to reach the computer comfortably.

* If you purchase a really cheap headset, you may find the recordings are bad. Cheap headsets aren't very sturdy, tend to fit badly and break easily. The microphone and cords take a lot of abuse plugging and unplugging, cords get tangled etc.

* If you purchase expensive headsets (with noise canceling circuitry) they'll have problems with low levels. Remember, our computers are set for standard ones.

* "Boom" microphone-type headsets work best. They're designed to be used close to the mouth. Other types (clip-on etc.) tend to pick up a lot of room noise.

Important Note about this Course Outline

On the following pages, the course is explained in detail. Assignments, marking, and the method of determining final grades are covered. If you do not understand any part of this outline, or if you have any questions, please ask instructor for clarification. The instructor will abide by the course outline and students are expected to read and understand its contents.

1. Demonstrate speaking and listening abilities appropriate to successful functioning in the classroom, workplace, and community:

- Use spoken English that is easy to understand.
- Use appropriate vocabulary and register in spoken English.
- Ask questions relevant to content.
- Use appropriate language and strategies in discussions.
- Demonstrate listening skills and understanding by taking notes during classroom presentations and lectures.
- Summarize information from classroom presentations and lectures.
- Prepare and present an organized oral presentation relevant to purpose and audience using appropriate audiovisual supports.

2. Understand and communicate effectively in the Canadian community and the post-secondary classroom:

- Demonstrate respect for learner colleagues, including those from differing cultural and linguistic backgrounds.
- Collaborate with others in group tasks and discussions.
- Ask appropriately for clarification from teachers, fellow students, and members of the community.
- Demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively with native speakers in the community.

Assignments and Tests

Some assignments will be done wholly or in part in class, with assistance from the instructor. You will also be expected to do other assignments at home. It is your responsibility to complete all assignments and hand them in on time. On time means at the beginning of the class in which it's due. If I have already collected the assignments, and you come in late, your assignment counts as a day late. If for some valid reason you have difficulty meeting a deadline, you must discuss this with your instructor before the due date. If you miss a test or presentation because you are sick, you must bring a doctor's note or a note from your homestay parent.

Late assignments lose 10% per school day. If you are not ready on the day of a presentation, you automatically lose 30%, for two reasons: (1) in the business world, you present when you say you will, and (2) a shift in day means I have to adjust my lesson plans, and inconveniencing your supervisor in the worlds of school or business creates a negative impact on the business and on your annual review.

Only assignments worth more than 5% can get marked late. If you miss an in-class assignment or quiz or homework mark that's worth 5% or less, it cannot be marked late. An example would be missing a 5-point quiz. If you choose to do the missed assignment or quiz, I will give you feedback on it, but no mark.

Plagiarism

All assignments must be completed entirely by the student. Work that is copied from another source or done in whole or in part by another person is plagiarism –theft of another person's ideas, writing, or work. Plagiarized work may result in a zero grade not only for that assignment, but also for the entire course. Avoid the temptation to plagiarize at all cost. It is far easier than students imagine for experienced instructors to spot plagiarism. A report will also be put on your academic file.

Please see Camosun Student Calendar for detailed specifics on plagiarism, including definitions of plagiarism as well as its academic consequences.

Cheating

Cheating on a test results in a zero on the test and a letter to Registration for your file. An example would be using a dictionary during a test when it is prohibited, as well as the more obvious examples of copying someone's test sheet or checking your notes. Another example is writing down ideas or expressions before saying them on a speaking test – this wouldn't happen in a conversation, so it can't happen on a speaking test. Cheating also includes talking to your classmate during a test; if you have a question or need a new pen or something else, you must ask me. If I hear your voice during a test, I have to assume you're cheating.

Even having one word written down could result in a failing grade on a test, even if you haven't used it yet.

If you allow someone to copy from you during a test, you are also cheating, and will also suffer the full penalty for your cheating, which could include a permanent letter on your student record.

Thus asking someone to let you copy their answers is an act of great unkindness; you would be asking him or her to risk failing and having a permanent stain on his or her record.

If you are in a difficult and painful situation because a friend has asked you to help him or her cheat, there are things you can do. Without necessarily saying the person's name, you can come to me and tell me about the problem. You can also see a counselor for advice in how to tell your friend "no" while preserving the friendship. You also might need to consider how much of a "friend" this person really is, as she or he might not be too concerned about the effect, both academic and emotional, of the request on you.

Independent Study

Homework study and ample listening practice is very important. Set aside a minimum of an hour per day for 074 homework. By establishing a regular study routine, you will become a successful learner.

Attendance

Attendance is very important. By attending regularly (and on time) and working consistently at your English, you will make progress. Regular attendance (at least 80% attendance) is necessary to complete the course satisfactorily. (3 lates = 1 absence)

If you know that you will miss a class during the course due to family or health reasons, please inform the instructor of your absence at the beginning of the course. As a general rule, do not plan to travel during the course.

Students need to produce a medical certificate or other valid documentation to explain their absence from class on a test day in order to take a test they have missed.

All students must have a study-buddy in class, and get missed notes, assignments, and announcements from him or her. Sometimes test dates can change; you are responsible for getting such updates/announcements from your study buddy.

Length of Time in 074

Students obviously progress at different speeds, depending on how well they speak and listen when they enter the course, how hard they are willing or able to study, and other influences, such as how much English they speak outside of class, length of time in Canada. Therefore, in order to reach the learning outcomes, some students may need more than one term in ELD 074.

According to the Academic Progress Policy in the Camosun Calendar, “students are ultimately responsible for their learning and progress and are expected to seek help in a timely manner when they are unable to meet the course requirements.” This means that if you fail or do poorly on one or more assignments, or you are failing the course, it is your responsibility to approach the instructor to ask for extra help.

Completion Requirements

- Students must receive a passing grade of C (60%) in order to pass the course.
- Students must also receive a passing grade of 60% in each of the speaking and listening components. Thus, if a student gets 30/40 in speaking, but only 20/40 in listening, she or he must repeat the course, even if the final mark for everything in the class ends up being more than 60%. If the student has a D or F in one component, such as the listening component, that is the mark that is recorded on the transcript, even if the overall final mark is over 60%.

- NOTE: A passing grade in both ELD 072 and ELD 074 are required in order to register in ELD 092 and ELD 094 together. Students who pass ELD 072 but NOT ELD 074 may register in ELD 092, but must pass ELD 074 before they may register in ELD 094.

Evaluation

Your mark will be based on a variety of formal and informal listening and speaking assignments and quizzes given over the course of the semester, as well as some marks for small assignments during the independent learning component.

Listening

▪ Note taking and summarizing exercises (2)	20 marks
▪ Listening comprehension tests (2)	20 marks
		40 marks

Speaking

▪ Presentations	20 marks
		40 marks

Recording Devices

- Students may not use recording devices in the classroom without the prior permission of the instructor. However, the instructor's permission is not required when the use of a recording device is sanctioned by the College's Resource Centre for Students with Disabilities in order to accommodate a student's disability and when the instructor has been provided with an instructor notification letter which specifies the use of a recording device. Recordings made in the classroom are for the student's personal use only, and distribution of recorded material is prohibited.

Quiz on the Course Outline

True or False?

_____ 1. If at any point during the first three months of the term you are failing the course, the instructor has to inform you of that.

_____ 2. If you allow your friend to copy an answer off your test, you get a zero on the test.

_____ 3. If you get 35/40 on the speaking component, 15/20 on the quizzes component, and 22/40 on the listening component, you can pass ELD 074.

_____ 4. To redo a test you missed, the only thing you need to do is show a doctor's note.

_____ 5. If an assignment is due on a Wednesday, and you hand it in on a Friday, you lose 20%.

_____ 6. If you miss a quiz worth five marks because you were late, you can do it at the end of class.

_____ 7. If a test date gets moved, and you skip class on the updated test day, thereby missing the test, you can write it another day.

_____ 8. If you miss a class, you need to get the notes from the teacher.

_____ 9. You have a family emergency, and there's an assignment coming up soon. If you talk to the teacher before the assignment date, you have a chance of getting an extension.

_____ 10. During speaking tests, you can write your expressions or words down before you say them.

_____ 11. If you ask your friend to help you cheat on a test, you are being inconsiderate, selfish, and in fact the opposite of a friend, because you are asking that friend to risk failing the course and having a permanent letter on his/her record.

_____ 12. Missing your presentation day means you lose around one third of your mark because school emulates the work world, and missing a presentation in the work world would not be acceptable.

_____ 13. During a quiz, you ask your neighbour for a pen because yours died. Consequently, the instructor will give you zero on your quiz.

ELD Department

Academic Progress and Attendance Requirements

Advanced and Provincial Levels¹

Progress

In most cases, the ELD department expects students to be able to complete a level (Advanced or Provincial) in one four-month semester (hours shown are per week).

Advanced

- 072 (10 hours)
- 074 (5 hours)

Provincial

- 092 (5 hours)
- 094 (5 hours)

Students are responsible for

- attending classes regularly (see “Attendance” below)
- speaking English in class
- doing assigned homework and in-class work
- participating in class activities

<http://www.camosun.bc.ca/policies/Education-Academic/E-1-Programming-&-Instruction/E-1.1.pdf>

Instructors are committed to providing quality education in a learning-centered manner. They will monitor course prerequisites and student progress and endeavor to place students in courses where they can succeed. When progress is unsatisfactory, appropriate interventions will occur.

Satisfactory progress requires that a student maintain a Grade Point Average of 2.0 (C) on the four most recent courses. A student whose performance is unsatisfactory will be placed on academic probation for the next session attended². A student in this situation must consult with an Academic Advisor. A student who is on academic probation and who fails to obtain a sessional GPA of at least 2.0 (C) will be required to withdraw from the School for one year. The student will be also placed on academic probation for the next session attended.

A student who is required to withdraw a second time will be refused registration for credit courses in the School of Access for two years. The student will be placed on academic probation for the next session attended. A student will be denied registration in any School of Access credit course for at least one year after twice receiving an F grade in that course. A student who is on academic probation may appeal this decision to the Dean.

Attendance

It is each student's responsibility to attend the first class meeting of each course. If a student does not attend the first class and does not contact the instructor, an ELDD instructional assistant, or an international education advisor within two working days following the first class with a satisfactory explanation, admittance to the course may be denied.

If a student does not attend classes and does not officially withdraw (via Camlink or Student Services) prior to fee deadlines, he or she will be required to pay all outstanding fees, will receive no further service until the fees are paid and may receive an "F"/"IP" grade.

During the term, if a student misses one week of class(es) without official documentation, s/he will first meet with the instructor to resolve the problem. If no resolution can be made,

² Spring and Summer are considered as one session.

then the student will meet with the Chair of the department who may recommend the following:

- attend Help Centre
- counseling
- program changes
- withdrawal
- discussion with an academic or an International Student Advisor (where appropriate)

At the end of term, if a student has missed 50% of class after having received departmental support, a letter will be sent to the student's local and permanent address regarding his or her absence in the course. A student with an attendance problem may not be allowed to register for the following term.

Students in any level who are receiving funding for their courses are expected to attend classes regularly. If the student is unable to attend classes, s/he is expected to contact his/her instructor(s) or an ELDD instructional assistant. Official documentation to justify absences (e.g. doctor's note) is expected.
