2. Required Materials

Literature: Reading, Reacting, and Writing, 2nd Canadian ed., edited by Kirszner, Mandell and Fertile

3. Assigned Work and Assessment

Students will be assigned a variety of work to help them achieve the learning outcomes for the course. Marks will be assigned in three key areas.

Area of Assessment	WEIGHT
Essay writing	70%
In-class work/presentations	20%
Poetry	10%

Note: The instructor may require additional assignments, such as frequent periods of free writing, to assist the student to achieve the required learning outcomes. Also, bonus marks will be available for excellent attendance and for the completion of certain voluntary activities. The instructor will explain the nature of the activities in class.

The first 45 to 60 minutes of each class is typically devoted to group activities. These include such things as free writing and reading, grammar and punctuation lessons, group discussions, vocabulary development, and proof reading practice. It is important that students attend and participate in the group activities. For the remainder of each class, students focus on their individual assignments.

4. General Information

- Regular attendance is essential to success in this course. Students are expected to attend all classes. If you are unable to attend a class, please let the instructor or instructional assistant know by voice or e-mail.
- All assignments must be typed and double-spaced.
- Students are expected to actively participate in class activities such as discussions and vocabulary building exercises.
- Be sure to keep a photocopy or electronic copy of all the assignments you submit in case your work is lost, damaged or misplaced.
