5. Course Content

Course Description:

This course, designed for non-native speakers of English, focuses on reading strategies and on the writing process. It is designed to prepare the student for further academic study. The course provides instruction and practice in the fundamentals of reading comprehension and academic writing, with a strong emphasis on grammar. Good grammar is extremely important for success in ELD 072.

Class Structure

In ELD 072, you will participate in a variety of learning activities: classroom instruction, pair and small-group activities, discussion, audiovisual learning, individual assignments and tutorials and labs. The combination of individual, small group and class work is designed to help improve specific skills while, at the same time, encouraging you to learn together and from each other.

Independent Learning

There will be two unsupervised hours each week when students work independently on specific group or individual assignments or activities. I will be available to assist you during these sessions, but you will be required to work independently during these times. After each of these sessions, students are responsible to hand in the work that they have completed. This is an important component of the course because it trains students in independent work, a necessary skill for future studies.

Assignments

Some assignments will be done in class, and you will receive individual assistance from me. You will also be expected to do other assignments at home. It is your responsibility to complete assignments and hand them in on time. If for some reason, you have difficulty meeting a deadline, you must discuss this with me before the due date. Failure to do this could result in a lower grade. In extreme cases, the result will be a failing grade. Assignments must be handed in at the beginning of the class in which they are due. Late assignments lose 10% per school day.

Format for writing assignments:

- All writing - whether done in or out of class - should be double-spaced.
- Major out of class writing assignments should be done on a computer.
- Staple all pages before handing in assignments.
- Make sure your name appears on every page.
- Keep an extra copy of your work, for safety reasons.

Academic Honesty

All assignments must be written entirely by you. Work that is copied from another source or done whole or in part by another person is plagiarism – the theft of another person’s ideas and/or writing. Plagiarized work will result in a zero grade for the assignment. In extreme cases, plagiarism will result in a failing grade for the course. This policy is in accordance with the Camosun College Calendar – Student Conduct section.

Homework

Homework study is very important. You should set aside a minimum of an hour per day for your 072 homework. By establishing a study routine, you will become an independent learner. Please check D2L after class for the homework assignments.

Attendance

Attendance is very important. If you attend regularly and work consistently at your English, you will make progress. Regular attendance (at least 80%) is a requirement of this course. Students should inform the instructor before class by telephone or email if they have to miss a class. Students unable to produce a medical certificate or other valid documentation to explain their absence from class may be denied make-up tests or assignments. Students must find a study-buddy in class, and get missed notes, assignments, and announcements from him or her. You are responsible for collecting handouts for your study-buddy if he or she is absent.

Length of Time in 072

Students obviously progress at different speeds, depending on how well they read and write when they enter the course, how hard they are willing or able to study, and other influences, such as how much English they speak outside of class, and length of time in Canada. Therefore, in order to reach the necessary level for success in ELD 092/094, some students may need more than one term in ELD 072.

Completion Requirements

Students must reach an adequate level of competency (60%) in BOTH writing and reading (about grade eleven) to complete this course successfully. In other words, you must reach a passing grade (60 %) in each of the skills (reading and writing) to pass this course. Students must receive a C (60%) in order to take ELD 092 and ELD 094.

Important Prerequisite Information

ELD 072 students must also complete ELD 074 or take ELD 074 with ELD 092 in order to register for ELD 094. Students must complete ELD 074 before they can register for ELD 094.
