- b) Recognize the importance of media literacy and exhibit a critical awareness of media messages.

5. Computer Literacy

- Use word processing software effectively in the production of written assignments;
- Use information from a variety of applications in the production and presentation of assignments (e.g. Internet websites, PowerPoint presentations, Word documents, video);
- Communicate effectively using e-mail.

How to be Successful in This Course

This course is designed to help you develop your ability to read, think, discuss, and write critically, creatively and analytically. You will get the most benefit from this course if you view it as a way of improving skills essential to success in college and your future career, rather than as a series of assignment to be minimally completed. Consistent effort is critical to success. If you complete all the assignments on time and to the best of your ability, attend all or most classes, and participate constructively in class activities, you will likely be successful in this course and gain personal satisfaction, confidence, and enjoyment from your accomplishments.

Writing. Developing your writing skills is an important component of this course. Because good writing requires time, persistent effort, thinking, planning, organizing, revising, and editing, most of your writing will take place out of the classroom. The most effective way to improve your writing is to (1) ask others (eg. a friend, fellow student, or instructional assistant in the English Help Centre) to give you feedback on your writing well before the due date; and (2) revise and edit carefully before submitting it for grading.

Reading. Developing your reading skills is also an important component of this course. Careful reading takes time and will therefore take place out of the classroom. Analyzing, discussing, and writing about selected texts helps improve not only your reading skills but also your writing, oral, and critical/analytical thinking.

English Help Centre

The English Help Centre (Ewing 202) is available to support all English Access students. Instructional assistants offer one-on-one assistance. Resources and computer help are also available. See their website for the schedule.

Grading Following is the Camosun grading system. I record the midpoint % for each letter grade. See the Coursepack for grading criteria.

Student Responsibilities

- Read, understand, and abide by this course outline. Instructors are obliged to follow their course outlines, so read this one very carefully and ask for clarification if there's anything you don't understand.
- Seek appropriate, timely help. Students are ultimately responsible for their own learning and for taking initiative to get appropriate, timely support. The College offers a spectrum of resources to support students' learning. For more information, check the College website. I am available to help you individually during office hours, by appointment, or by email.

3. Familiarize yourself with official College requirements and policies.

Immediate, Urgent, or Emergency Support. If you or someone you know requires immediate, urgent, or emergency support (e.g. illness, injury, thoughts of suicide, sexual assault, etc.), SEEK HELP. Resource contacts @ <http://camosun.ca/about/mental-health/emergency.html> or <http://camosun.ca/services/sexual-violence/get-support.html#urgent>

College Services. Camosun offers a variety of health and academic support services, including counselling, dental, disability resource centre, help centres, learning skills, sexual violence support & education, library, and writing centre. For more information on each of these services, visit the STUDENT SERVICES link on the College website.

College Policies. Camosun strives to provide clear, transparent, and easily accessible policies that exemplify the college's commitment to life-changing learning. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of College policies. Policies are available on the College website at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/>. Education and academic policies include, but are not limited to, Academic Progress, Admission, Course Withdrawals, Standards for Awarding Credentials, Involuntary Health and Safety Leave of Absence, Prior Learning Assessment, Medical/Compassionate Withdrawal, Sexual Violence and Misconduct, Student Ancillary Fees, Student Appeals, Student Conduct, and Student Penalties and Fines.

4. Be honest. Do your own work. Don't plagiarize. Plagiarism is a serious offence. It is considered theft and dishonesty. The College Student Conduct Policy defines plagiarism as the "presentation of another person's or source's words and/or ideas as one's own...rang[ing] from an entire assignment that is not the student's own work to specific passages within an assignment taken from a source without acknowledgement."

- In this class, the minimum penalty for plagiarism is a grade of zero on the relevant assignment. More serious consequences may be imposed as per the College Student Conduct Policy.
- Getting too much help from others is also plagiarism. Others may give feedback on your writing, so long as they are doing it in a way in which you learn and do your own original work. Your helper may tell you what type of errors you have made, but may not change any of your words or ideas.
- It is your responsibility to "prove" that your work is entirely your own, if I ask. Periodically use the "save as" function to save different drafts (eg. Draft 1, Draft 2) as you write. If I suspect you didn't write part or all of your assignment, I will ask you to produce all your drafts and notes so I can see the progress of your writing. Failure to produce drafts and notes may be considered evidence of plagiarism.
- If you are unsure about the line between using your original work and incorporating other people's feedback, bring your revised draft to the English Help Centre or to me for clarification. If you have used too much of someone else's words or ideas, we'll help you adjust it. Doing this shows your desire for academic honesty and to learn.

5. Only use laptops or cell phones in the classroom if you have prior permission from me. I may occasionally request that students use electronic devices to assist in-class learning tasks. Do not use your devices for other purposes (eg. texting) as doing so is a distraction (comparable to chatting in class) for yourself and others and is therefore disrespectful to the learning environment of the class as a whole.

- During a test, your electronic devices must be shut off and placed inside your purse or backpack.

6. Attend most classes. Successful completion of this course is highly correlated with regular attendance.

- All attendance is recorded.
- Absent students are responsible for material covered during class and meeting assignment deadlines.
- I am unable to individually re-teach missed classes or inform students of material missed during their absence. At the beginning of the course, exchange email addresses and phone numbers with several other classmates to help one other in the event of absences.

7. Arrive on time. Since lateness interrupts the class, make every effort to arrive on time. Please let me know if your circumstances will cause you to be unavoidably late.

8. Prepare for class and participate cooperatively. Everyone is responsible for co-creating a collaborative, respectful, enjoyable, supportive, productive learning environment; therefore, students are expected to
- ❑ speak and act with integrity, sensitive to how one's words, actions, and attitudes affect others; and
 - ❑ listen carefully with full attention and an open mind, valuing differing viewpoints.

Students who have not properly prepared for class or assigned group work—or who behave in a manner that detracts from a positive learning environment—place an unfair burden on their classmates and may be asked to leave the class or the group.

9. Carefully and attentively read the assigned readings BEFORE class. The assigned readings (see the Course Schedule) are designed to prepare you for the class learning activities that day and for the next writing assignment. The reading quizzes are designed to test basic reading comprehension, to help motivate you to read carefully and attentively before class, and to reward you for class attendance and preparation.
- ❑ Quizzes are scheduled at the beginning of class, so make every effort to arrive on time. Latecomers cannot be given extra time as it is unfair to expect the class to wait while latecomers finish.
 - ❑ Missed in-class quizzes cannot be made up as they are marks for class preparedness and participation. Exceptions will be made with valid documentation (eg. doctor's note), or if you notify me in advance that you must miss class for a valid reason.
 - ❑ If you have not completed the assigned reading before class, you will be expected to excuse yourself from the class before the quiz starts to do the assigned reading so that you are prepared for the class. You may not join a group unless you have read the required reading. You may not make up the quiz.
10. Carefully read and follow all assignment guidelines. Be sure to get help well before the due date if you do not understand the guidelines. Assignments that do not follow the assignment guidelines will receive a grade of D or F. See the revision policy below.
11. (Optional) Revise and resubmit the following assignments within 3 weeks of the due date if you receive a grade of C or lower: Paragraph One, Paragraph Two, Essay One and Essay Two.
- ❑ Assignments submitted more than 2 weeks after the due date may not be revised.
 - ❑ Attach the original essay that I graded so I can see the feedback I gave you; otherwise, your revised essay will be returned unread, and you may resubmit within one week.
 - ❑ Students may revise twice. The maximum grade for a first revision is C+. The maximum grade for a second revision is C.
12. Submit all assignments any time on the due date.
- ❑ Late assignments will be deducted 2% per day (excluding weekends) to a maximum of 10%. Assignments will not be accepted if submitted more than 2 weeks after the due date. Exceptions will be made if you submit valid documentation from an appropriate professional (eg. a doctor's note).
 - ❑ Email or D2L submissions will not be accepted. Exceptions will be made only if your circumstances merit an electronic submissions and I give you prior permission.
 - ❑ Computer problems or lost or damaged copies are never valid excuses for late assignments.
 - ❑ Staple assignments before submitting (I don't bring staplers to class).
 - ❑ Do not use clips or folders.
 - ❑ If you submit an assignment to my office when I'm not there, ask a faculty member (if no faculty are available, ask a librarian) to legibly sign his/her name on the assignment, as well as the time and date he/she signed it, and then slide it under my door.
 - ❑ No assignments will be accepted after 6:00 pm on the Friday immediately following the last class.
