4. Course Content and Schedule

Classroom Hours:

Because this class is self-paced, students can work wherever they feel comfortable: from home, the library, the help centres, etc. This will depend in part on what is open during Covid closures.

Appointments can be scheduled with the instructor Monday to Thursday, by appointment, using Blackboard Collaborate Ultra on D2L.

NOTE: The English Help Centre will also be offering online support. This is a valuable way to get tutoring help for your assignments.

Course Description:

This self-paced 072 course is designed for non-native speakers of English who have a degree and/or work experience from their own country. It is suitable for learners who prefer to study individually and at their own pace rather than attend a regular class. The course focuses on developing reading and writing strategies for academic study. The course introduces ten strategies for developing reading skills. It also provides instruction and practice in grammar and skills learners need to write accurate and fluent essays.

Computer experience required for this course:

In this course, we make extensive use of email and email attachments. The following is a list of skills that you should be comfortable with to be successful in this course:

- Basic keyboard and mouse proficiency
- Word-processing (typing, cutting, copying and pasting)
- Working with files (opening, saving and “saving as”)
- E-mail (sending, receiving, replying, forwarding and attaching files)
- D2L (accessing and uploading assignments, receiving and responding to feedback)
- Using online video conferencing software to meet with your instructor

How to Complete the Course:

To successfully complete the ELD 072 course, you must reach an adequate level of competency (60%) in BOTH writing (writing and grammar tasks) and reading (reading and summary tasks). This means you must achieve a grade of C or 60 % in each of the skills (writing and reading) to pass this course.

Academic Honesty:

All assignments must be written entirely by you. Plagiarism, i.e. copying the work of a classmate, Internet resources or copyrighted materials, is considered dishonest use of another’s ideas.

Plagiarized work will result in a zero grade for the assignment. In extreme cases, plagiarism will result in a failing grade for the course. This policy is in accordance with the Camosun College Calendar – Student Conduct section.

5. Basis of Student Assessment

Assignments:

Most assignments you do at home and submit to your instructor via D2L. If you want to complete the course in one term, follow the suggested schedule for competing your work. If you have difficulty meeting the suggested deadlines, you can discuss this with your instructor.

Please note that if you do not complete the course and wish to carry your assignment marks forward to a new term, you must enrol in the next consecutive term.

Assessment & Evaluation:

Writing (40%)		Grammar (10%)		Reading (40%)		Summary (10%)
Unit 1	5%	Unit 1	2.5%	Chapter Tests	20%	Paraphrasing	1%
