INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Mark Fournier

EMAIL: fournierm@camosun.bc.ca PHONE: 250 370-3839

OFFICE: Portable A, Room 102A

HOURS: Available before and after class and by appointment.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students in this course engage in essential activities of a job search. Students will research employment opportunities relevant to personal interests, strengths, and abilities using networking, informational interviews, information technology, and available resources. With support, students will prepare resumes and/or portfolios. Students will practice filling out job applications as well as preparing for and conducting mock interviews.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- communicate personal skills, strengths, and attitudes relevant to entry level employment in an area of interest.
- use available resources to conduct a job search including finding help with career planning, resumes, applications, and interviews.
- identify employment opportunities appropriate to their skill sets, interests, and abilities
- use information technology at their level of mastery in support of an entry-level job search
- conduct an informational interview with a person who can provide information about a job or employer of interest to the student.

REQUIRED MATERIALS & RECOMMENDED PREPARATION / INFORMATION

Students will be provided with learning materials. There may be a replacement fee for lost materials.

Students are responsible for the following materials:

- Clean clothing in good repair appropriate for a variety of employment settings.
- Please wear closed toe shoes to all classes, labs and placements.
- 3 ring binder, pens, paper and a book bag for organizing course materials
- Calendar, schedule or smart phone to keep track of appointments and commitments.
- Meals, snacks, water.

Support is available to students who may have trouble obtaining these items.

EVALUATION OF LEARNING

Students are responsible for demonstrating their learning towards course outcomes. All evaluations can be tailored to suit your learning needs and abilities. Please talk with the instructor if your learning needs are not being met.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Students are expected to be responsible for the following:

- Following all health and safety rules and procedures.
- Attend all classes and labs and actively engage in learning. Should it be necessary to miss a class, students should provide notice to this instructor. It is the student's responsibility to catch up on anything that may have been missed (e.g. important announcements or assignments).
- Demonstrating learning and asking for help when needed.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Course Withdrawals Policy

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.2.pdf> for further details about course withdrawals. For deadline for fees, course drop dates, and tuition refund, please visit <http://camosun.ca/learn/fees/#deadlines>.

Grading Policy

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf> for further details about grading.

Grade Review and Appeals

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.14.pdf> for policy relating to requests for review and appeal of grades.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized

Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. To contact the Office of Student Support: oss@camosun.ca or by phone: 250-370-3046 or 250-3703841

Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College's Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.

Changes to this Syllabus: Every effort has been made to ensure that information in this syllabus is accurate at the time of publication. The College reserves the right to change courses if it becomes necessary so that course content remains relevant. In such cases, the instructor will give the students clear and timely notice of the changes.
