INSTRUCTOR:	Johnny Mak Office: F-308A (Fisher Building), 370-3198
OFFICE HOURS:	Will be announced in class.
TEXT:	Gerard Egan () The Skilled Helper (ed.)
PREREQUISITE:	Psyc. 154

COURSE DESCRIPTION:	often introdu	day to day relationships with friends, families, and workers, we are in situations that require us to act as helpers . This course will uce a variety of concepts , attitudes , and skills that will maximize our ial effectiveness as helpers .
OBJECTIVES/: OUTCOMES	In this areas:	s course you will have the opportunity to develop the following
	1.	Become more competent in basic & advanced communication skills .
	2.	Learn to understand, conceptualize, and evaluate the counselling values, beliefs, attitudes and issues.
	3.	Become more competent in the helping/counselling skills and use these skills in the context of a structured interview .
	4.	Learn how to apply the Skilled-helper model in counselling or helping situations.
	5.	Experience more awareness of yourself as an integral part of the helping process.
FORMAT:		s will consist of lectures, discussion, demonstration, videos, and be of new skills and concepts as well as group activities.
EVALUATION:	А.	Class Attendance and Participation

Your consistent attendance and active participation are very important. Because of the experiential and interactive nature of learning, and for your learning and classmates' learning, you are expected to attend every class

There will be base-group activities (e.g. worksheet, discussion, exercise) every week. If you missed the base-group activity, your respective marks will not be available afterward (unless with a medical note).

B. Weekly Quizzes

There will be a short quiz given each week at the start of lecture. The purpose of these quizzes is to ensure that students keep up on their text reading so as to enhance active learning and participation in lectures. If you missed (or are late for) a quiz, it will not be available later (unless with a medical note).

C. Skilled-Helper Model Summary & Personal Reflection Report

Students will prepare for class discussion and practice by reading, summarizing and reflecting on the three stages of the Skilled-helper Model of helping in the text. A written report of each stage of the Model will be submitted at the beginning of the class. (See Schedule of Activities for due dates). For write-up format and instructions, please see Model Report handout.

D. Tape Assignment

The objective of the tape assignment is to practise interviewing and helping skills, identify and correct errors. The primary purpose is skill development through training and practice.

- 1. Find an adult person (must not be your classmates of this class & preferably not your family members) to be your 'client'.
- 2. You are helping the 'client' to work through a personal concern (unrehearsed, a real life situation). Record a 20-30 minute tape (the quality of recording must be clear & audible) in which you are the 'helper'. Do not script, do not start and stop the tape. Tape scripting is a severe offence.
- 3. You use a number of interviewing and helping skills (i.e. at least 5 different TYPES of skills/listening responses) that you have learned in the class.
- 4. Choose and write out 10 of your most effective responses (to illustrate at least 5 different types of skills). Write out 5 responses that did not go the way you wanted it to. Write analysis and give better alternatives for both effective and undesirable responses, and identify the types of skills.
- 5. Also, you should include an Introduction and a Conclusion (what you learned by doing this tape) in your transcript.
- 6. Hand in audio-tape (good quality recording) and transcript.
- 7. Write up format and instructions (see Tape handout)

E. Group Discussion Exercise

There will be written exercises concerning skills, beliefs, attitudes and issues of counselling given approximately in every class. Students in small groups will discuss the questions. Then, the class will go over the exercise together. The purpose of this exercise is to help students to better understand the issues and process of counselling. If you miss a class and do not participate in group discussion, your respective discussion mark will not be available afterwards (unless with a medical note).

F. Test

There will be two tests covering material from lectures, class discussion and the text. These tests will examine your cognitive understanding of concepts as well as your ability to apply these concepts to various counselling\helping situations.
