

SOC. 100 (01 & 03) -SOCIAL STRUCTURE AND ORGANIZATION

Instructor: Sue Dier
Office: Fisher 110

Telephone: 370-3524

REQUIRED TEXT:

Kendall, Diana, Rick Linden and Jane LothianMurray
2001 Sociology in Our Times: The Essentials. Toronto: ITP Nelson.

INSTRUCTIONAL FRAMEWORK:

This course will consist of lectures and class discussions. Students are encouraged to give personal examples and to ask questions. Students are expected to read each assigned reading by the date indicated. Students are responsible for all lecture material, some of which is not available in assigned readings. Students are also expected to understand announcements made in lectures.

Cellular telephones must be turned off in class. If you think that there is a potential that you might need to be contacted during class times, please discuss this with Sue. Electronic dictionaries may be used in classes but only print dictionaries are allowed during tests.

Students should read the section "Academic Policies and Procedures" on pages 39 to 46 of the 2001-2002 College calendar.

Students with special needs should inform the instructor of these at the earliest possible time. For those requiring special class and test conditions, documentation from Disability Support Services is required.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

To receive credit for this course, students must write four one hour tests. Each will consist of both multiple choice and short answer questions. Students are responsible for all course material up to the test date. Although tests are not cumulative, basic information may be required for a question to be adequately answered. Students who miss a test ~ contact the instructor, present proof of extenuating circumstances and arrange to write the test at a mutually convenient time. Tests will each be worth 25% of the final grade and will be on:
