2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Knowledge outcomes:

- Discuss the trends in human evolution and the role of natural selection
- Understand the relationship among culture, biology and environment in examining human variation
- Understand the importance of archaeological investigation to modern society
- Recognize and explain to other that our culture constructs our realities so that social inequality, for example, is a human invention
- Identify key features of language

Skills outcomes:

- Debate issues of human biology, society and history using anthropological evidence
- Critically evaluate evidence used to explain human past and present

Attitude outcomes:

- Address ethnocentrism as a barrier to understanding other cultures
- Acquire tolerance of and respect for cultural and biological diversity
- Gain an appreciation of the contributions of the anthropological approach to our understanding of human history

4. Basis of Student Assessment

EXAMS: 80%

There will be two exams comprised of multiple choice questions and short answer questions such as defining terms or concepts and providing examples; listing characteristics or factors in point form; and writing short paragraph answers for a choice of questions. The exams are equally weighted.

Midterm	40%	Monday May 26, 2003
Final	40%	written during the College exam period (final is NOT cumulative)

All exams must be written to successfully complete Anthropology 104. Exams must be written at the scheduled times. In the case of illness, a medical certificate must be presented to the instructor. There will be no exceptions without a medical certificate. If a make-up exam is scheduled based on illness, students must write make-up exams at the mutually agreed upon time.

ASSIGNMENTS: 20%

Group Discussion (5 marks, worth 5%)

Each student will be responsible for leading one group discussion in the term, as part of a team. In the second meeting of the class, students will choose which article of the required readings they wish to read particularly carefully so that they can provide a set of questions to lead group discussion at some point in the term. Marks will be based on quality of questions and the response from the group; this should make EVERYONE read the articles and be prepared to discuss in class!!

Language Assignment (5 marks, worth 5%)

Language is an integral part of culture, and as a result, different cultural groups or activities have their own language terms. In an effort to explore socio-linguistics each student will create a one page list of jargon for a particular aspect of our society that is of particular interest. Examples include:

Internet language
Cooking language
Skateboard language
Sports terminology

Feel free to use these examples, or come up with one of your own. Along with the one-page list, write a summary of the cultural context in which this language is used along with any observations you might have about the development of this jargon.

Archaeology Assignment (10 marks, worth 10%)

Archaeologists study the material remains of past cultures, and base their interpretations on the evidence they recover from sites. This short assignment is designed to make students think about how archaeologists piece together past cultural systems. A detailed explanation of the assignment will be discussed in class at least 2 weeks before the assignment is due (along with a handout).

BE FORWARDED: Try to avoid handing in late papers, as you will lose marks. A paper will be considered late if it cannot be handed in at the beginning of class. ALL late papers will have one mark deducted for each day it is late. Papers will not be accepted later than 2 school days after they are due. This is a really stupid way to lose marks, and the course outline gives a lot of advance warning about assignments, so don't even TRY to dream up excuses!

5. Grading System

The following percentage conversion to letter grade will be used:

A+ = 95 - 100%	B = 75 - 79%	D = 50 - 59%
A = 90 - 94%	B- = 70 - 74%	F = 0.0 - 49%
A- = 85 - 89%	C+ = 65 - 69%	I = See Calendar for Details
B+ = 80 - 85%	C = 60 - 64%	AUD = Audit

W = Official withdrawal has taken place.

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College Calendar, Registrar's Office or the College web site at <http://www.camosun.bc.ca>

ACADEMIC CONDUCT POLICY

There is an Academic Conduct Policy. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, Registration, and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
