2. Intended Learning Outcomes

(If any changes are made to this part, then the Approved Course Description must also be changed and sent through the approval process.)

This course introduces students to the discipline of anthropology and its four subfields: physical anthropology, archaeology, cultural anthropology, and linguistic anthropology. Students will gain an understanding of:

- human evolution and the role of natural selection
- methods and implications of archaeological research for our understanding of past and present human societies
- the nature of culture and the ways in which it shapes our behaviour and thinking
- cross-cultural differences and similarities in people's subsistence strategies, religious beliefs, family structure and social organization
- human language and its relationship to culture
- the application of anthropological approaches and findings to current issues

Course material will be presented largely in a lecture format, including PowerPoint Presentations, films, and other materials. Students will be asked to take part in group work and class discussions.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(Should be linked directly to learning outcomes.)

(a) Assignments

Assignment 1 (5 %): Students will produce a kinship diagram based on their families.

Assignment 2 (5 %): This assignment consists of a brief summary and critical discussion of an article from the reader (~ 3 pages). You can choose either article 6, 7 or 8.

Assignment 3 (10 %): Students will write a summary and commentary of a news article relating to any of the discipline's four subfields (~ 3 pages). They will then present their article and discussion to the class as part of a group. Grades will be based on the written part, prepared individually by each student (5 %), and on the group presentation as a whole (5 %).

Assignment 4 (10 %): Using an anthropological perspective, students will write a description and critical discussion of a social group they belong to or are very familiar with (~ 6 pages).

(b) Quizzes

Exams

Exam 1 (25 %): This exam is based on all materials covered up to that day, including lecture topics, films, and readings (Chapters 1-5, 7, Articles 1-3).

Exam 2 (20 %): This exam is based on all materials covered between Exam 1 and 2, including lecture topics, films, and readings (Chapters 6, 8-10, Articles 4-6).

Final Exam (25 %): The final is based on all materials covered after Exam 2, including lecture topics, films, and readings (Chapters 11-16, Articles 7-10). It will also include a few general concepts covered earlier in the course.

(c)

(d) Other (e.g. Project, Attendance, Group Work)

6. Grading System

(If any changes are made to this part, then the Approved Course description must also be changed and sent through the approval process.)

(Insert appropriate approved grading system – see last page of this template.)

The following percentage conversion to letter grade will be used:

A+ = 95 - 100%	B = 75 - 79%	D = 50 - 59%
A = 90 - 94%	B- = 70 - 74%	F = 0.0 - 49%
A- = 85 - 89%	C+ = 65 - 69%
B+ = 80 - 84%	C = 60 - 64%

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College Calendar, Registrar's Office or the College web site at <http://www.camosun.bc.ca>
