5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(Should be linked directly to learning outcomes.)

Marks will be determined on the basis of the following work:

1. First Examination- 20%

A preliminary exam will be held in class on February 13th. It will consist of Fill-In-the-Blanks, Short Answers, and one Essay question. This examination will serve as a preview of the other examinations in this course and the level of performance expected in the course. The format of the three examinations will be similar and this preliminary examination should be used as a guide in evaluating the effort and skills required for successful completion of this course. A review and exam preparation session will be held in class on February 6th.

2. Second Examination- 30%

A second examination will be given in class on March 15th. It will consist of three sections: Fill-In-the-Blanks, Short Answers, and Essay Questions. The exam will be based on material covered to date and will include material from lectures, discussions, and required readings. A review and exam preparation session will be held in class on March 13th.

3. Media Assignment- 25%

This assignment consists of collecting and annotating six articles from daily or weekly newspapers which show the relationship of criminal justice and the court system. A separate handout will be provided. The written portion of the assignment should be 500-750 words in length. The media assignment is due March 22nd. Late assignments will be penalized. No assignments will be accepted after April 10th.

4. Final Examination- 25%

A final examination will be given during the last week of classes on April 12th. The format will be the similar to the second examination. The exam will cover material presented since the second examination. A review and exam preparation session will be held in class on April 10th.
