2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Write expository prose for various purposes and audiences.
 - Develop a mature writing process, which may include prewriting, planning, drafting, conferring, revising and editing/proofing.
 - Select and use rhetorical patterns purposefully.
 - Write correct, clear, cohesive, and effective English.
 - Vary style purposefully through manipulating sentence rhythms, sentence variety, vocabulary and figurative language.
2. Read mature expository and persuasive prose by student and professional writers.
 - Vary their reading approach for different purposes such as research and criticism.
 - Analyze expository prose by identifying controlling ideas, supporting ideas, dominant rhetorical pattern, tone and features of style.
 - Summarize expository prose in their own words to reflect coherently the original's ideas, organization, and tone.
3. Research topics for expository papers.
 - Use a variety of sources, which may include personal knowledge, interview, print, and other media.
 - Choose to summarize, paraphrase, or directly quote from sources.
 - Integrate the results of research into expository papers.
 - Document sources fully and ethically, according to specified bibliographic conventions.

3. Required Materials

(a)	Texts	English 150 Course Pack ed. Thom Bland
(b)	Other	The College Style Sheet , Furberg and Hopkins, 5th Edition Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time

4. Course Content, Schedule, Expectations, Essay Format

Essay Format: Please follow the Modern Language Association guide for essay format such as that found in the College Style Sheet by Furberg and Hopkins. These guidelines are also available on the web at a number of locations—see <http://webster.comnet.edu/mla/index.shtml> Submit ALL essays TWICE. ONE copy should be on paper and the SECOND copy should be submitted electronically as an attachment to an email. You should regularly scan your computer for viruses

Attendance: It is impossible to pass this course without at least 80% attendance.

Plagiarism: This is putting someone else's writings (or ideas) into your work and not saying where you got these materials. You thereby imply that the other person's work is your own. This is a serious offence and will be dealt with accordingly. SEE LINK BELOW ON CONDUCT. AN ACT OF PLAGIARISM IS ENTERED ON YOUR PERMANENT STUDENT RECORD.

My Philosophy: your academic well being is one of my responsibilities. If you have ANY academic problems during your studies at Camosun College, come and see me. If I cannot help you myself, I will direct you to people who can. SEE LINK BELOW FOR OTHER RESOURCES.

5. Basis of Student Assessment

Evaluation:	DATE	VALUE
In-Class Writings (at least three)	Continuous	45
Paper 1 (1000 words)	July 12th	15
Paper 2 (1500 words) research paper	Aug 9 th	20
Paper 3 (1000 words) (in-class)	Aug 21 st	25
Participation and In-Class Presentations	Continuous	20
Journal	Continuous	1
	TOTAL	126

NOTE: IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO PASS THIS COURSE WITHOUT HANDING IN ALL ASSIGNMENTS. THAT INCLUDES YOUR JOURNALS.

Due Dates: All essays are due on the dates specified. 10% will be deducted for EACH of the first two days a paper is late. After this period, the work will not be accepted.

Note: Journal Writing/In-Class/Rough Drafts/Marked Essays: ALL FINISHED WORK SHOULD BE TYPED WHEN POSSIBLE—even your journal. Please keep this writing in a binder which allows the removal and insertion of individual pages. I will want to see this material at least twice during the semester, but you may submit it more frequently if you so desire. Handing something in to me should not prevent you from carrying on in another area of writing. The journal may also be submitted electronically via email.

Note about Journals and In-Class Writing: read and respond to articles before and after we discuss them in class. Occasionally, you will be asked to write about the articles without any in-class discussion. This IN-CLASS writing may be based upon your memory of the piece and may be done with your text closed. 45 marks out of a total of 126 marks will be based upon this sort of writing. Always arrive in class prepared to write about the readings or some subject that is an offshoot of those readings.

The journal is a record of your writing experience. You will discover some surprising things about the way YOU write, and it will help you organize your thoughts. It is also very useful to record your thoughts about the novel or non-fiction text that you are reading for this class as you read it; you will find the beginnings of essays in these rough notes. This collection of your work should be present at EVERY class.

Rough Guideline for Readings

Note that these will be done in somewhat the order they are presented. Also, begin reading Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time immediately even though it will not be discussed until later in the course

YOUR SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITY: At the very beginning of the class, you will be given the name of a writer for whom you are responsible. You will be expected to discuss the article connected with your writer and lead some of the class discussion around that specific piece. Hand in all of the written work you prepared in preparation for this class. I will be explaining this more in the first class.

6. Grading System

Evaluation Guide: As you can see, this does NOT match the College's grading system. However, I hope it will give you a general idea about my expectations and show you how these translate into rough grade equivalencies.

F Lack of clear expression makes failure automatic. Subject being discussed is obviously not understood or is obviously inaccurately presented.

D Several errors in spelling, punctuation, or difficult language expressions. Subject not thoroughly discussed and/or thoroughly understood.

C Occasional weakness in expression. The basic material is obviously understood, but the sentences are unvaried and simple.

C+ Very few mechanical errors. The basic material is understood. Some attempt at sentence variety and original expression. Not much creative imagination is involved in trying to put the subject into a new light.

B Virtually no errors in expression are present; that is, all is very clear. Subject is thoroughly studied and understood. Some degree of originality is involved in the way the subject is seen and understood.

A The kind of work that might be expected at the next level. Complete and clear understanding with a high degree of originality. No mechanical errors.

Standard Camosun Grading System (GPA)

Percentage	Grade	Description	Grade Point Equivalency
95-100	A+		9
90-94	A		8
85-89	A-		7
80-84	B+		6
75-79	B		5
70-74	B-		4
65-69	C+		3
60-64	C		2
50-59	D		1
0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at camosun.ca or information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
