Norton and Green. Essay Essentials With Readings. 2004
A Good Dictionary

Calendar Description:

This course centres on organizing and expressing ideas in clear and effective written prose. Instruction and practice in writing college-level expository prose, based on appropriate models, form the core. Individual assignments range in length from 500 to 2500 words (course total of 4000-4500 words).

Learning Objectives:

At the end of the course students will be able to:

Write expository prose for various purposes and audiences.

Develop a mature writing process which may include prewriting, planning, drafting, conferring, revising and editing/proofing.

Select and use rhetorical patterns purposefully.

Write correct, clear, cohesive, and effective English.

Vary style purposefully through manipulating sentence rhythms, sentence variety, vocabulary and figurative language.

Read mature expository and persuasive prose by student and professional writers.

Vary their reading approach for different purposes such as research and criticism.

Analyze expository prose by identifying controlling ideas, supporting ideas, dominant rhetorical pattern, tone and features of style.

Summarize expository prose in their own words to reflect coherently the original's ideas, organization, and tone.

Research topics for expository papers.

Use a variety of sources, which may include personal knowledge, interview, print, and other media.

Choose to summarize, paraphrase, or directly quote from sources.

Integrate the results of research into expository papers.

Document sources fully and ethically, according to specified bibliographic conventions.

Important Notes

- Participation mark will be based on attendance, contribution to discussions, and exercises
- Students with more than 2 undocumented absences will lose 5% of the participation grade
- Students who are absent for an in-class essay or quiz will receive zero
- Peer-edit sessions are mandatory. Failure to submit peer edit forms and drafts with the final assignment will result in losing 10% of the final grade for that assignment (two letter grades)
- Late papers will lose 5% per day, and they will not receive comments
- Write your own papers! Plagiarism is an academic offence that the college takes very seriously. Please see the “red handout” for a detailed discussion of this issue
