If an assignment is done improperly, one point will be deducted, but a student will have one week to improve it. A late assignment will lose 0.5 point per day and has no privilege of a remake.

A written and oral quiz will be given after completing each lesson. Five quizzes are scheduled in total. Each written quiz is worth 5.0 points and oral quiz is 2.0 points each. Students who are ill, or otherwise unable to attend a quiz or submit an assignment on time should consult with the instructor in advance, otherwise no chance will be given to retake the quiz or the assignment will be accepted.

Oral Presentation

Each student is expected to memorize five sentences including key expressions for each chapter and demonstrate them in front of the instructor with/without his/her partner. Each presentation is worth 1.0 and the presentation needs to be done within two weeks from the completion of each chapter.

Oral Interview

During the last two weeks of the class, each student will be asked about ten general questions in Japanese. The schedule for the oral interview will be out during the first week of November.

Both the midterm and the final are worth 20%. The final will be given on the last day of the class.
