Course Description and Intended Learning Outcomes

Basic learning principles are applied to everyday problems. Learning is achieved through group discussion and creative role-play situations.

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Articulate basic behaviour change principles and procedures.
2. Apply those principles and procedures.
3. Describe the factors influencing effective applications.
4. Describe potential pitfalls of ineffective applications.
5. Evaluate behaviour change programs, both scientifically and practically.

Web CT

The course materials (web-notes, focus topics, course outline and grades) are available on my website, and were developed using webct. The first time you go to the site, please follow these steps:

- Type <http://webct.camosun.bc.ca> into your address bar
- A screen with a little graduate icon will appear in the left hand corner. Click on "Log in to my Web CT"
- A screen will appear that says "Web CT ID" . In the box, enter your Camosun College student ID number (e.g. C0123456)
- Beside "password" enter changeme
- Click log-in. It will prompt you to immediately change your password. Complete that, then log-in.
- A small information bar will appear along the top of the screen. It will say "Psyc 164: Instructor: Katrina Gantly". Click on the Psyc 164. This will take you to my homepage.

After this, it is much simpler. You'll login using your camosun ID and new password, it will immediately take you to the web-page.

During the first week of classes, students are often adding or dropping classes. In order to access WebCT, you must be added to the course list by our distributed education team. Because this sometimes takes a few days, for the first week I will bring hardcopies of any documents to class for you. If you experience any difficulties logging into WebCT, please let me know and I'll help you in any way I can.

Required Materials

Texts: Miltenberger, R.G. (2008) Behavior Modification: Principles and Procedures (4th edition) Thomson Wadsworth.

Optional Materials: Web-notes from my website (listed above). They will be available in MS Word format for students who are interested in printing out lecture material prior to class. Please note that in the event that I am unable to post the notes to the website at least 24 hours prior to class, that I will bring a hardcopy of the notes to class with me. It is important to state that web-notes ONLY cover information from overheads/Power Point...they represent only about 1/2 of the information presented in lecture, and do not include assignments, practice examples, etc. Therefore, if you miss a class, please make sure that you can get the notes from a friend.

	Seminar A	Thursdays 9:30 – 10:20 in Wilna Thomas 102
	Seminar B	Thursdays 10:30 –11:20 in Wilna Thomas 102

Evaluation Methods:

- 1. Tests: There will be four of these in total, covering approximately 5-7 chapters each. They will not be cumulative. These tests will count for 12.5% each for a total of 50% from tests.
