(No changes are to be made to this section, unless the Approved Course Description has been forwarded through EDCO for approval.)

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Describe the developmental changes from conception through adolescence.
2. Explain the reasons for those changes
3. Summarize the main developmental theories in psychology.

3. Required Materials

- (a) Text: Kathleen Stassen Berger
The Developing Person Through Childhood and Adolescence – 7th
Edition

4. Course Content and Schedule

Carried in the womb, carried by their parents, and, finally, carried by their own two feet, children are continuously absorbing the stimuli of their world. This class will examine the sequence and underlying processes of child development through adolescence, looking at many all domains of development including physical, cognitive, emotional, and social. The interplay between biology and environment will be presented, as well as a focus on education, health, and social issues.

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
-----------------	-------------

I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3 ^d course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services and on the College web site in the Policy Section.

ADDITIONAL COMM Important Notices:

The course requires an ongoing commitment to a number of assignments and projects. Please be attentive to the due dates. Late submissions, without an accompanying medical note, note of family affliction, or note from a Camosun College coach regarding an athletic event will not be accepted. All assignments are due in class on the assigned day. Similarly, exams that are missed (not due to the above mentioned reasons) cannot be made up. Therefore, missed examinations due to travel and holiday are forfeited.
