Text: Essay Essentials (at a bookstore near you)

ENGLISH 150

Course Objective: The objectives of this course are relatively simple: each of you will learn how to write and read effectively, energetically, and persuasively. You will learn how to organize essays, how to write persuasively by using language actively, how to argue effectively by using evidence to support your thesis, all the while being mindful of your intended audience. Being a good writer means returning to the basics, and that is just what we aim to do here.

Overall Importance: Each of us has a personal and social obligation to be the best writer and reader possible. The practice of writing will make you better able to express your own opinions and ideas clearly, to use evidence actively, and to react with control and knowledge to the opinions of others. The theory and practice of reading in this course will empower you to interpret the written word, and to better use language to express your own unique views on the experience of being in the world. I am certain that if you make a commitment to the work involved, and if you strive for personal excellence, then the writing skills you develop in English 150 will be applicable to the rest of your lives.

Review: For many of you, this material will be review. No matter. Practicing the basics will make you a better writer. Besides, my experience teaching everything from first year composition to graduate studies is that rarely is there anyone who has actually mastered the art of writing. So my job is to simply provide you with the basics; what you do with the basics is up to you. Invent! Invent! Invent!

Dynamics: You will be expected to voice your views during class. In this classroom environment, all questions will be treated with respect both by me and by your fellow classmates. No one has all the answers. Therefore, each of you has a responsibility to promote a positive learning environment. The vim and vigor you display in this regard will influence your final grade. Also, I think that most people learn better when they are having fun. So, against the odds (and the evens), the time spent writing and reading in English 150 should also be fun, possibly even entertaining.

GUIDELINES:

1. Assignments must be submitted on the due date at the beginning of class. I make no exceptions to this rule.
2. Exceptions to this rule: an extension inquiry that is made at least one week in advance of the due date.
3. Assignments may not be submitted electronically.
4. Make two copies of each assignment: keep one and submit the other.
5. ALL assignments must be typed and double-spaced; an automatic zero will be recorded for such assignment with no option for a rewrite...
6. There are no rewrites.
7. 10% penalty for each day or portion of each day late.
8. All assignments must be submitted for marking to pass the course.
9. You will not pass if you do not attend. 80% attendance required.
