ABOUT ESSAYS AND ASSIGNMENTS ...

Missed In-Class Essays and Tests:

- Unless you can prove a medical issue (with a doctor's note), all in-class assignments/ tests/ essays must be completed in the intended class.
- A missed in-class assignment /test/ essay without a note will be given a grade of zero.
- Failure to notify me of your medical issue within 2 days of the intended class will disqualify you for a make-up assignment and also result in a grade of zero.
- If you already know that you are going to be unable to attend on the date an assignment is scheduled, please come and see me ASAP. If your absence is justifiable, we will determine a re-schedule date as close as possible to the set date.
- Missed work worth less than 3% cannot be made up at another date.

Late Essays:

- Essays are due at the start of class unless otherwise specified.
- Up to 10% per day (including weekends days) can be deducted for lateness.
- If you must hand something in late, you must hand it to me personally or have it signed and dated by some other English instructor and slipped under my office door (Paul 330).
- Unsigned/unstamped essays found under my door will NOT be accepted.
- Nothing will be accepted 5 days or more past the due date.
- Requests for extensions will be considered under special circumstances, but only if the request is made in advance of the due date.

Attendance, Readings, Homework, and Participation:

To do well in English 150, you must regularly attend the class.

As with any course, it is also vitally important that you have completed all assigned readings and any exercises or activities indicated in those readings before coming to each class (exception: anything indicated as 'group work' which will be done in class). Further, since our class time will be quite interactive, you must come prepared to actively and intelligently participate. Reading assignments are provided on attached schedule.

If you do find it necessary to miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed, to collect any handouts, and to receive any extra homework instructions BEFORE the next class and BEFORE seeing me. I'd thus suggest you make a trustworthy friend in the class with whom you can exchange phone numbers and from whom you can borrow thorough, reliable notes.
