1. Write, read and comprehend written and spoken French, using limited structures and a vocabulary dealing with the subject matter studied.

3. Meet basic survival needs in a French environment (e.g., ask for directions, tell the time, count).

3. Required Materials

Textbook: Voilà! L.Kathy Heilenman (Fifth Edition)

Workbook: Voilà Cahier d'activités écrites et orales, L. Kathy Heilenman (Fifth Edition),

4. Course Content and Schedule

The course covers selected material presented in chapters 1-10 of the textbook Voilà.

Students have the opportunity to practice language structures and vocabulary through various activities; therefore, the textbook can not replace the instruction in the classroom.

Course format:

Both class sessions consist of both instructional time and oral/aural/ written practice.

Time during each chapter is spent specifically on pronunciation and oral comprehension. Chapter tests include an oral comprehension component.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

- In-class participation 20%

Oral expression is essential while learning a foreign language. Students are expected to attend class regularly and participate actively in all oral/written activities. Students who miss more than two classes will have points deducted from their participation mark.

- Chapter tests 40%

Students will be evaluated on the material covered in class after every two chapters.

- Assignments 20%

Students will write three compositions at home. Instructions will be given as to the topics and requirements.

- Compositions must be typed and double-spaced.

- Assignments will not be accepted after the due date.
- All written work must be the product of the student alone.
This means NO outside assistance of any kind, or it will result in a mark of zero.

- Final Exam 20%

The final exam will draw on the material covered in chapters 1-10.

NB: Absences

Regular class attendance and work is crucial while learning a foreign language.

- Legitimate absences are only those due to illness, accident, or family affliction.
- Students who are absent the day a test is given or an assignment is due will receive a zero, unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor.
- It is the responsibility of the student to find out what class work, announcements or assignments s/he has missed while absent.
