2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Through reading textbooks and primary source materials, hearing faculty lectures, participating in seminars, writing papers, making presentations, and performing tests, students will:

1. Gain an appreciation of critical themes, events, and issues of this period.
2. Explore the nature of First Nation/European encounters during the 15th to 17th centuries.
3. Examine the establishment of European settlements in North America, especially the role of European values in shaping US history.
4. Contrast life in the various colonies (e.g., Puritan vs. planter colonies).
5. Analyze the role of ideas and ideology in shaping both the American revolution and the early United States.
6. Explore the rise of industrial society.
7. Examine the nature of continental expansion.
8. Understand the nature of the north/south divide, slave society, and the reasons for the civil war.
9. Reassess and challenge traditional and existing perspectives on critical events and issues of this period.

By the end of the course, through exposure to the above materials and ideas, the student should be able to:

1. Think critically about historical issues and writing by evaluating the arguments put forward by historians, weighing the evidence they present and making judgments about the strength of their arguments.
2. Appreciate history as a distinct academic discipline, understanding its unique outlook, scope and methods and what distinguishes it from other disciplines.
3. Use history to confront the issues of today's world, establishing a context for the present and comprehending the accomplishments, failures, tensions and issues of the present era.
4. Have increased skills in research, writing and written and oral communication.

3. Required Materials

(a)	Texts	THESE BOOKS ARE SOLD AS A PACKAGE. a) John M. Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at camosun.ca or information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services and on the College web site in the Policy Section.

CAMOSUN LIBRARIES Library resources for History

When you need reliable books, articles and websites for essays and research projects, ask a librarian to help you find suitable items. You can go to the Information Desk in the library, or use the online service called AskAway. There is a link to AskAway, as well as the catalogue and library hours, on the library's homepage at www.camosun.ca/library. The Library gives you access to thousands of articles through online databases.*

To find articles that are relevant to History topics, click on Art/Literature/History at the top of the database list. These databases will be useful:

1. Academic Search (EBSCO) –journals with an academic focus, many full-text
2. Combined CBCA – Canadian magazines & journals, some full-text
3. JStor – full-text, academic journals
4. Humanities Index – index only, some full-text

You can read the articles on any computer with an internet connection, but to gain access you will need your student number (C#####) and library password. Your library password is usually your birthdate in the format MMDDYY. Ask for assistance if this does not work.

* If you cannot use this direct link, follow this path: from the library's homepage: click on Magazines/Journals/Newspapers, then select Search for articles by topic.

MY NOTE ON PLAGIARISM: When writing an assignment in which a student uses an author's words those words must appear in quotation marks and be properly footnoted. When a student paraphrases an author's words or uses that author's ideas the student must footnote his/her source. Failure to do either of the above constitutes plagiarism. In addition, should a student copy another's work, either on assignments or exams, that too is plagiarism. Plagiarism could result in a failing grade on the assignment, a failing grade for the course, and further disciplinary action by the College.
