FORMAT

In order to achieve the main objective – the implementation of theory into practice, students will do readings from the text, discussions in class, and a series of structure planned exercises that involve practicing new skills in pairs and small groups. Mini lectures will explain various concepts and techniques such as role-playing and written work will demonstrate and practice concepts and skills. Students will be evaluated on conceptual understanding as well as skill performance.

EVALUATION: A course grade will be determined by the following:

1. Role Plays 25% (MAX. 30 MIN.)

In teams of 3-5 students you are to role play a situation illustrating an aspect of Interpersonal communication. The narrator should introduce the role play and keep the audience informed, as necessary, as to what concept or principle is illustrated (video, chart, and or role play).

Following the role play, other students in the class are expected to comment on What they learned from the role play, how well the concept(s) were illustrated, etc. You are to conduct a class activity to solicit written feedback.

Grading of Role Play:

All members of the group are expected to work cooperatively on both the planning and the write-up. The final grade for the role play and the presentation will be shared among all members.

Any student having difficulty with this format needs to discuss this with the Instructor. All members of the group are expected to contribute to the planning. Role play grade will be provided at the following class.

List of Role Plays:

1. Chapter 3 (pp. 140-146)
Illustrate how the “Pillow Method” is used to resolve a difference in point of view Between people. (2-3 examples in own life).
2. Chapter 4 (pp. 175-187)
Illustrate how Albert Ellis’ seven irrational beliefs or fallacies lead to illogical Conclusions and debilitating feelings.
3. Chapter 5 (pp. 196-215)
Illustrate 6 ways the language we use can cause problems in our relationships, And also illustrate alternatives.
4. Chapter 2 (pp.,72-93)
Demonstrate what specific real-life experiences will affect the formation of high-Low self esteem and ways to improve self concept.
5. Chapter 7 (pp. 309-318)
Demonstrate 7 types of ineffective listening and identify correct alternatives.
6. Chapter 8 (pp. 374-384)
Illustrate how an interaction proceeds through four different levels of self-Disclosure.
7. Chapter 9 (pp. 414-427)
Illustrate ways to respond non defensively to criticism and ways to prevent Defensiveness in others. Use real-life examples.
8. Chapter 10 (pp. 477-494)
Use 4 real life examples to demonstrate the 4 methods of conflict resolution.

You will form a group and present a thirty minute presentation of a skill topic to the class. This presentation must illustrate your understanding of the concept or skill. You may elect role play, charts, games, etc. to illustrate your topic. You will be provided some class time to help organize topics. Most of the presentation planning is done out of class. Be sure to set at least three scheduled dates to get together with your group to plan, prepare, and practice the presentation prior to its due date.

CHAPTER QUIZZES: (40%)

There will be a short quiz given approximately after each chapter reading. The purpose is to ensure the student keeps up with the text material. There are NO make up quizzes. The best eight of ten quizzes comprise the forty percent. The student can miss two quizzes without the course grade being affected.

TESTS (20%)

There are two tests each worth the same percentage and are of similar format. Both tests comprise multiple choice and short answer questions to assist the student in demonstrating his or her conceptual understanding. Test one covers material in chapters one through six. Test two covers material in chapters seven through ten.

CHAPTER INTEGRATION PAPER (15%)

The student is to write a paper integrating the theory by applying various concepts to his or her life experiences. The paper will include the concepts and terms from the text to specific examples in the student’s life. BE SURE TO BE SPECIFIC and think of moving from vague language to concrete, as described in chapter five. This should not be a library research paper but needs to reflect more of what you have learned from the chapter and how the theory helps to understand and improve upon relationships with others.

Write a paper approximately 800-1000 words; using concepts, vocabulary, and material from TWO specific chapters. Keep the paper clear, coherent, and concise.

Try to write a paper that has a central theme instead of a list of concepts and examples. A good way to do it is to take a real life situation and describe it using the theory, making sure to keep a high amount of course material discussed (balance 50% of chapter content with personal examples

Write and rewrite before submitting the final copy. One student wrote ten drafts before the final copy. Remember to use concepts and vocabulary from the two chapters chosen (chapter one through to chapter 10). Underline each of the concepts the first time they are applied. Use lots of vocabulary. The two main aspects of the paper are to: describe theory and describe how the theory relates in your life (practice).

4. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(a)	Assignments	Integration paper	15%
(b)	Quizzes	Eight of ten quizzes	40%
(c)	Exams	One of two tests	20%
(d)	ROLE PLAY WITH OTHER STUDENTS	Oral 16 marks and written report 9 marks	25%

Students will be evaluated their conceptual understanding as well as skill performance. This includes the student's ability to use the skills presented in class. Attendance is very important in meeting both of these requirements and missing more than 6 hours of class may resulting a loss of one letter grade.
