3 reflections x 5% 15%

This course introduces students to the importance of group work within the justice field and as such will work within three different groups. Groups will be formed in three different ways: self selected, instructor assigned, and random assignment. Upon dissolution of each group, students will write a brief reflection essay on their experiences.

b. Written Report on the effect of residential school experiences on Aboriginal people in Canada 20%

This assignment consists of a 6-8 page referenced paper discussing your findings on the topic. An assignment guideline will be distributed and reviewed in class.

DUE DATE: Feb. 23, 2009

c. Oral Presentations 15%

There are two presentations that students will be making in class; one brief 5 minute individual presentation and a 40-45 minute group presentation on the group's policy report. Groups are required to meet with me one week prior to their presentation date to prove their readiness to present. The presentation dates will be drawn in class and the written report on the policy findings is due one week after the presentation. The group presentation mark is a group-shared mark.

-individual presentation (5%)
-group presentation (10%)

DUE DATE: VARIOUS

d. Written (group) Report on Policy Analysis findings 15%

An assignment guideline describing this assignment will be distributed in class.

DUE DATE: VARIOUS

e. Participation10%

Participation grades will be assigned based on attendance, participation in class and within the context of group work. Your final mark will be determined by my assessment of your participation, your assessment, and your group member's assessment within the context of group activities. Whatever is earned can be severely impacted by your failure to attend class. Each class that is missed results in a loss of 1 earned mark.

f. Final Exam25%

This will be scheduled during the final exam week. It will consist of true/false statements, short answer questions, and short essay responses.

6. Standard Grading System (GPA)

Percentage	Grade	Description	Grade Point Equivalency

80-84	A-		7
77-79	B+		6
73-76	B		5
70-72	B-		4
65-69	C+		3
60-64	C		2
50-59	D	Minimum level of achievement for which credit is granted; a course with a "D" grade cannot be used as a prerequisite.	1
0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

A standing of INC will only be awarded upon prior arrangement between teacher and student, subject to supporting documentation.

This course is considered a Criminal Justice core course and therefore a student must achieve a C grade or better to receive transfer credit.

What do the grades mean?

- A: Designating a “superior level of achievement”, a letter grade of A is awarded to the student who surpasses course expectations by doing additional reading and research, and by providing well thought-out and clearly expressed ideas on exams and assignments. The student demonstrates outstanding organizational, analytical and critical thinking skills, as well as added resourcefulness in meeting course requirements.
- B: Designating a “high level of achievement”, a letter grade of B is awarded to the student who exhibits substantial comprehension of course reading and lecture materials and is able to reflect this knowledge orally and in writing. The student demonstrates analytical thinking skills and clearly performs above average in meeting course requirements.

- C: Designating a satisfactory or “sufficient level of achievement”, a letter grade of C is awarded to the student who completes all course requirements and has a competent understanding of the course materials. Further improvement is attainable with effort and refined reading, writing, analytical, and organizational skills.
- D: Designating a “minimum level of achievement”, a letter grade of D is awarded to the student who generally performs below average, does not show signs of having read the assigned readings or is unable to present ideas in writing in sufficient clarity or detail. The student may need remedial assistance to improve reading/writing skills.
- F: Designating “below minimum level of achievement”, a letter grade of F is awarded to the student who fails to meet all or most course requirements. This may be due to poor attendance, hastily prepared assignments, not having done the readings or some other correctable problem.

7. Instructional Policies

1. Attendance and Participation

Regular attendance and participation in class is required. Students will be deducted 1 mark (out of the 10 allotted to participation) for each class that they miss. This rule applies to all classes including those in which students are doing oral presentations. It is expected that students will arrive to class on time and that, during class, students will be attentive, non-disruptive, open-minded, constructive, and respectful of others.

2. Late Penalty

Students having a legitimate concern about meeting the due dates should consult with the instructor well in advance.

All assignments must be completed and submitted by the date assigned. All late written assignments will be penalized by 20% of the total mark per day.

Students may negotiate the late submission of one assignment in the semester; please come see me if you think you need to make use of this permission.

3. Written Assignment Requirements

Written Assignments for this course must be typewritten and double-spaced. Written assignments must be submitted to the instructor at the beginning of class. Assignments received at the end of class or not given directly to the instructor as noted may be penalized as defined under #2.

All assignments submitted for evaluation must be original and produced for the purposes of this course only. All assignments must be prepared by each student individually, unless I have given permission for a group submission.

4. Course Completion Requirements

Students must complete all evaluative requirements (reflections, individual paper, group report, oral presentations and final exam) to receive a passing grade for the course. Students failing to complete all the requirements will receive an F grade.

5. Plagiarism

If you are concerned about your ability to properly credit and cite references, please come see me ASAP. I am here to help you!!!

Plagiarism is considered a serious academic offense. If plagiarism is documented by your instructor, the penalty will be an automatic "0" for that assignment. A general rule to follow is that 5 or more consecutive words taken from a document or other source should be placed in quotations and referenced appropriately; all other paraphrased information should be credited using a parenthetical citation.

6. Cheating/Academic Dishonesty/Student Conduct

The Criminal Justice Department has a clearly articulated policy on cheating and student conduct, as does the College. Cheating may result in suspension and the potential loss of a career in the criminal justice field. Please refer to a current College Calendar and the Criminal Justice Orientation Manual.

7. Course Withdrawal

The last day to withdraw from this and other Winter 2009 courses without receiving a failing grade is March 9, 2009.

8. Mark/Grade Challenges and Appeals

A student who is seeking to question a mark and/or informally resolve a grade appeal with the course instructor must clearly articulate in writing the specific element of the test or assignment being questioned and provide written reasons/arguments supporting why the mark/grade should be changed. The College appeals process is outlined on pages 34 of the 2008/2009 Camosun College Calendar.

9. Student Responsibility

It is each student's responsibility to familiarize her/himself with course/program and college policies. Students experiencing difficulties throughout the semester are encouraged to talk to the course instructor at the earliest opportunity.
