

School of Arts & Science Applied Communication

APPROVED COURSE DESCRIPTION

Education Council Approved: September 2003, February 16, 2009 Date
1.	Course Abbreviation, Number & Title (Title is limited to 30 characters including spaces.)
	COMM 260 Seminar 3
2. Calendar Description (Brief statement of the purpose and description of the course.) (Limited to 50 words.)
	Weekly seminars with representatives of the communication industry to explore communication issues, values and opportunities.
3. Pre-requisites (A requirement that must be met before entry into this course.)
	Successful completion of all 3 rd semester ACP courses.
4.	Co-requisites (A course that must be taken at the same time as this course.)
5	Pre/Co-Requisite (A course that must be taken either at the same time or before this course.)
6.	Credits (if applicable) 1
7.	Mode and Hours of Delivery (select ✓ those that are available)
	[x] Direct Instruction (show hrs/week)
	classroom; lab; seminar 1; work experience; estimated out-of-class 2 number of weeks 14
	[] Distributed Education (on-line, web based)
	[] Self-Paced

8. Is Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) available for this course? (No)

COURSE DESCRIPTION COMM 261

(continued)

9.	Inten	ded	Learning	Outcomes
----	-------	-----	----------	-----------------

(If any changes are made to this part, changes must also be made on the Course Outline)

At the end of the course the student will be able to:

1. Participate in organizing a seminar that involves industry representatives and discusses communication issues, industry values and/or career opportunities.

2.	Evaluate and provide approparticularity	•	• •	l by other
	ding System (select ✓ ny changes are made to this	•	st also be made on the C	Course Outline)
	☐ Letter Grades
\boxtimes
Refer to Grading Policy (at http://www.camosun.bc.ca/policies/policies.php or the College Calendar) for specific information regarding these systems)
	R. Caswell	May 2003	D. Knapton	June 2003
Approve	d: Chair	Date	Dean	Date
	A. Bryce	Oct 06
Approve	d: Chair	Date	Associate Dean	Date					