2. Intended Learning Outcomes

1. Discuss the trends in human evolution and the role of natural selection in the evolution of our species.
2. Outline the relationship among culture, biology and environment in examining human health and disease.
3. Explain the importance of archaeological investigation to modern society.
4. Recognize and explain to others that our culture constructs our realities so that social inequality, for example, is a human invention.
5. Identify key features of language.
6. Use the World Wide Web to investigate anthropological issues.
7. Debate issues of human biology, society and history using anthropological evidence.
8. Critically evaluate evidence used to explain the human past and present.
9. Address ethnocentrism as a barrier to understanding other cultures.
10. Acquire a tolerance of and respect for cultural and biological diversity.

3. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(a)	Assignments	Assignments (40%)  Please see handouts for more information on each of these assignments. Garbology Assignment (6%). Students will participate in an in-class assignment about garbology as well as write a short paper based on the in-class activity. Due January 27th Poster Presentation (24%). Students will work in small groups to develop a poster about culture change, and present this poster in the last week of class. Students will be given some in-class time to work on their posters. Student Journal (10%). Students will keep a journal about the course readings. It will be submitted to the instructor periodically throughout the semester. Late Assignments: Students will NOT be permitted to submit late assignments in this course without a medical certificate. Crashing computers, hungry dogs, work conflicts, running out of ink for printers are not valid excuses so please plan ahead.
(b)	Exams	Exams (60%) Exam 1: 20% - Feb 1th  Exam 2: 20% - Mar 3th  Exam 3: 20% - Examination Period The exams consist of multiple choice, definitions, and short/long answer questions. Exams must be written during the scheduled times, unless a physician's medical certificate is presented to the instructor. The final exam will be written during the scheduled exam period after the last week of classes. Do not make travel plans until the exam timetable is posted as you will not be permitted to write the exam on a different date.

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services or the College web site at camosun.ca

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
