-Introduction to drawing exercises e.g. gesture, contour, modeling, perspective, scale, composition, etc.

-Engaging properties of tools: Pencils, conte, ink, paint, and different paper/surfaces, collage, appropriated photos etc.

-Other aspects of art making: content and historical and contemporary references through gallery visits, videos, and slides.

-Working with elements of art relating to social awareness/content; comparison of historical and contemporary uses of studio techniques.

-Keeping a sketchbook which is a record of your personal journey, student centered research, exhibition reviews (illustrated), brainstorming ideas, portable studio.

*A more detailed schedule will be given out at the first class.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(This section should be directly linked to the Intended Learning Outcomes.)

Assignments – In class assignments.. Students are expected to complete all assignments, on time, that are given by the instructor. (70%)

Sketchbook – students are expected to keep a sketchbook for the term,. It will be evaluated at mid-term and end of term. (15%)

Attendance and Participation - Students are expected to attend all classes, on time, and to participate in class activities and discussions. Missing classes (without valid reasons) will result in a diminished grade which could result in failing the course if absences are frequent.. This also includes attending visiting artist lectures and visiting galleries as assigned. You are evaluated weekly on your participation, innovation, willingness to experiment, and desire to resolve your projects. (15%)

(b) Quizzes N/A

(c) Exams – There is no formal exam. There will be feedback on a regular basis in class, and you will be assessed at a midterm personal interview with your portfolio of work done to that date, and a final assessment will be done during exam week .

(d) Other (e.g., Attendance, Project, Group Work)

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
