4. Course Content and Schedule

Welcome to the course. This course sets out to deepen your understanding of film through an examination of the aesthetic, technical and cultural roots of cinema. We will explore the beginnings of cinema and the relation of cinema to personal experience and to issues of social concern, feminist issues, gendered spaces and environment.

Schedule and content

I have designed this course for students who are interested in visual art and culture and fascinated by film. This course is designed to help you understand methods and practices in filmmaking and to interpret images. In addition, the course should provide you with the ability to integrate the basic understandings and ideas about film and visual media and use them in your related scholarship and in your own life. In addition to traditional lectures, you will have the opportunity to participate in classroom discussions and group presentations and to write papers on selected films.

Schedule: class Hours Art 190, 10:30-2:30, Fridays, Fisher 100

- Introduction to film as an art form (1895-present)
- Styles and technical aspects (editing, camera movement, costumes and lighting)
- Film is considered historically, socially and artistically
- Relationship of film to major art movements (German Expressionism, Russian Constructivism, Surrealism, Abstract Expressionism, Conceptual art and Postmodernism)

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3 rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
