ENGLISH 150

Course Objective: The objectives of this course are relatively simple: each of you will learn how to write and read effectively, energetically, and persuasively. You will learn how to organize essays, how to write persuasively by using language actively, how to argue effectively by using evidence to support your thesis, all the while being mindful of your intended audience. Being a good writer means returning to the basics, and that is just what we aim to do here.

Overall Importance: Each of us has a personal and social obligation to be the best writer and reader possible. The practice of writing will make you better able to express your own opinions and ideas clearly, to use evidence actively, and to react with control and knowledge to the opinions of others. The theory and practice of reading in this course will empower you to interpret the written word, and to better use language to express your own unique views on the experience of being in the world. I am certain that if you make a commitment to the work involved, and if you strive for personal excellence, then the writing skills you develop in English 150 will be applicable to the rest of your lives.

Review: For many of you, this material will be review. No matter. Practicing the basics will make you a better writer. Besides, my experience teaching everything from first year composition to graduate studies is that rarely is there anyone who has actually mastered the art of writing. So my job is to simply provide you again with the basics; what you do with the basics is up to you. Invent! Invent!

Dynamics: In this classroom environment, all questions will be treated with respect both by me and by your fellow classmates. No one has all the answers. Therefore, each of you has a responsibility to promote a positive learning environment. The vim and vigor you display in this regard will influence your final participation grade.

I also think that people learn better when they are having fun. So, against the odds (and the evens), the time spent writing and reading in English 150 should also be fun, possibly even entertaining. If you are unsure of the expectations concerning student conduct, please see the Camosun College Calendar.

GUIDELINES:

1. Assignments must be submitted on the due date at the beginning of class. The beginning of the class is the time the class begins. I make no exceptions to this rule.

2. Exceptions to this rule: an extension inquiry that is made at least one week in advance of the due date.

3. Assignments may not be submitted electronically.

4. Save two copies of essay assignments.

5. ALL assignments must be typed and double-spaced; an automatic zero will be recorded for any assignment that fails to comply with format policies. There is no option for a rewrite...

6. There are no rewrites.

7. 10% penalty for each day or portion of each day late unless previously arranged (unless see 2).

8. All assignments must be submitted for marking to pass the course.

9. Historically speaking, you will not pass if you do not attend. 80% attendance required.

10. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to get the information from someone else in the class.

11. Neither cell phone nor computer use permitted during class.

12. BE ON TIME: Chronic lateness = withdrawal from the course.

13. I am happy to discuss with you how to improve a paper, or to provide clarity to what may appear righteously illegible handwriting, but I do not negotiate grades. Also be aware that I grade the document, not the individual.

14. This is a first year university introductory English course. Your instructor (that's me) has high standards for the written work you submit. I am aware that it is not unusual for professors to begin tough and then not enforce standards as the term wears on. Be advised that I will enforce standards the entire way through the course – feel free to verify this with other students who've taken other classes with me. If you aim to improve your academic writing and are willing to put in the time, I am a good teacher to have.

Grading System

Evaluation Guide: A general idea about my expectations and show you how these translate into rough grade equivalencies.

F Lack of clear expression makes failure automatic. Subject being discussed is obviously not understood or is obviously inaccurately presented.

D Several errors in spelling, punctuation, or difficult language expressions. Subject not thoroughly discussed and/or thoroughly understood.

C Occasional weakness in expression. The basic material is obviously understood, but the sentences are unvaried and simple.

C+ Very few mechanical errors. The basic material is understood. Some attempt at sentence variety and original expression. Not much creative imagination is involved in trying to put the subject into a new light.

B Virtually no errors in expression are present; that is, all is very clear. Subject is thoroughly studied and understood. Some degree of originality is involved in the way the subject is seen and understood.

A The kind of work that might be expected at the next level. Complete and clear understanding with a high degree of originality. No mechanical errors.

This is the schedule for the fall; please note that the schedule is subject to change. I reserve the right and so on...
