4. Course Content and Schedule

(This section can include: class hours, lab hours, out of class requirements and/or dates for quizzes, exams, lectures, labs, seminars, practicums, etc.)

The primary objective of this course is to engage students in a critical examination of criminology as a discipline. In order to do this, the text, Criminology: The Core, will play a significant role in helping you to master the subject matter of this course. It is important that each chapter be read prior to the scheduled class. This will be the assumption under which I will be working. Furthermore, there are many classes in which you will be required to bring the text for use in group work, so please consider making it a habit to bring your text.

To maximize your learning, I recommend that you pay careful attention to the key terms and the review questions listed at the end of each chapter. You should be able to answer each of these. The text also has a number of student resources at their website www.crimthecore.nelson.com and I urge you to make use of these resources for study purposes. Questions about the text readings should be raised in class or during office hours. Class time will be used to review, clarify and apply the concepts discussed in the readings and will consist of group work and class discussion. Your readiness to engage in these opportunities will significantly improve your understanding of the criminological enterprise.

This course also has a D2L component which I will be using in predominantly three ways. First, you can track your personal progress through this course under the grades function. Secondly, I will be posting some material (case profiles, review sheets, course outline and guideline) for you to download as needed, and finally, one of the library assignments will be completed via the D2L site.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services, or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services, and the College web site in the Policy Section.

8. Instructional Policies

a. Attendance and Participation

Regular attendance and participation in class are required. It is expected that students will arrive to class on time and that, during class, students will be attentive, non-disruptive, open-minded, constructive, and respectful of others. Students are encouraged to identify current events that directly relate to course content.

b. Exam Date Changes

No provision will be made to write an exam earlier or later than originally scheduled. All exams must be written at the times and on the dates assigned. A student will only be allowed to write a missed exam by providing a valid medical certificate attesting to the fact that s/he was ill (or suffered an accident) at the time of the assigned test. In addition, the student who misses an exam due to illness must inform the instructor on or before the date of the exam of the reason for her/his absence.

Note: Students arriving thirty minutes or more after a course exam has commenced will not be permitted to write it.

c. Late Penalty

Students having a legitimate concern about meeting the due dates should consult with the instructor well in advance. All assignments must be completed and submitted by the date assigned. All late written assignments will be penalized by 20% of the total mark per day. Students may negotiate the late submission of one assignment in the semester; please come see me if you think you need to make use of this permission as this must be agreed to at least 48 hours before due dates.

d. Written Assignment Requirements

Written Assignments for this course must be typewritten, double-spaced and meet the basic requirements for formal academic papers as outlined in the guidelines and the CJ Writing Reference Manual. Written assignments must be submitted to the instructor at the beginning of class.

All assignments submitted for evaluation must be original and produced for the purposes of this course only. The submission of assignments completed for other courses may be construed as academic dishonesty.

e. Course Completion Requirements

Students must complete all evaluative requirements (Exams, Criminological Study Evaluation, Analysis of Criminological Problem etc) to receive a passing grade for the course. Students failing to complete all the requirements will receive an F grade.

f. Plagiarism

If you are concerned about your ability to properly credit and cite references, please come see me ASAP. I am here to help you!!! The types of assignments you will be completing for this course are vulnerable to plagiarism. Please take care while completing your assignment and make sure that you have properly paraphrased or quoted material that you then properly reference and give credit to using the APA format.

What is Plagiarism??? Plagiarism is the failure to fully, and accurately acknowledge the sources of all information used in your assignments, thereby giving the impression the work is your own. Plagiarism includes the use of quotes, or another author's words, without using quotation marks or giving a proper reference citation to the original author. Plagiarism also includes failing to document the source(s) of paraphrased information/ideas.

Plagiarism is considered a serious academic offense. If plagiarism is documented by your instructor, the penalty will be an automatic "0" for that assignment.

g. Cheating/Academic Dishonesty/Student Conduct

The Criminal Justice Department has a clearly articulated policy on cheating and student conduct, as does the College. Cheating may result in suspension and the potential loss of a career in the criminal justice field. Please refer to a current College Calendar and the Criminal Justice Orientation Manual.

h. Course Withdrawal

The last day to withdraw from this and other Winter 2011 term courses without receiving a failing grade is March 14, 2011.

i. Mark/Grade Challenges and Appeals

A student who is seeking to question a mark and/or informally resolve a grade appeal with the course instructor must clearly articulate in writing the specific element of the test or assignment being questioned and provide written reasons/arguments supporting why the mark/grade should be changed. The College appeals process is outlined on pages 38 of the 2010/2011 Camosun College Calendar.

j. Student Responsibility

It is each student's responsibility to familiarize her/himself with course/program and college policies. Students experiencing difficulties throughout the semester are encouraged to talk to the course instructor at the earliest opportunity.
