Notes on the syllabus:

1. Since every group of writers and readers is unique, the syllabus is bound to change.
2. If you cannot make it to class, the work and assignments you miss are YOUR responsibility. In other words, do not ask me WHAT you missed, but by all means ask me questions ABOUT what you missed.
3. If you cannot hand in an assignment on time, and you still want me to accept it, you must: (a) have a reasonable excuse, (b) let me know in person or by telephone before the assignment is due, and (c) plan a date for when you will submit your work.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(This section should be directly linked to the Intended Learning Outcomes.)

Evaluation:

Essay 1	10%
Essay 2	15%
Early mid-term	15%
Late mid-term	15%
In-class writing (unannounced)	20%
Exam (during exam period)	25%

Important Course Policies:

1. Late assignments: Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Late assignments will lose 10% per day for the first two days, unless arrangements are made directly with J. After two days, they will not be accepted at all. Late assignments will receive no feedback beyond a grade.
2. If you miss in-class work/exams, you will receive a zero (unless you can prove a medical emergency). Check with me beforehand if you know in advance that you will be unable to attend.
3. Please be careful when using other people's words or ideas. Using them without identifying the author constitutes fraud (plagiarism) and can have a lasting impact on this course and your future studies. See me if you are in any doubt about where to draw the line between your work and someone else's.
