Course Description:

During this course the student will be introduced to the fundamentals of radio production, on-air announcing, the nature of sound, the use of common audio equipment, and the regulations affecting radio broadcasters. The goal is to provide students with the basic knowledge and skills to begin working in the radio industry through involvement with Village 900 (CKMO Radio). By the end of the semester, you will have acquired the skills necessary to do regular on-air shifts on Village 900.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

	Evaluation
Tests: (approximately 3)		30%
Projects:		40%
Hands on Tests (2 in total)		30%
Total		100%

Marks will be deducted for unexcused absences, and late or incomplete assignments. Failure to show up for a scheduled on air shift will result in a deduction of one full letter grade from the final mark. A second missed on-air shift will result on a failing grade for the course.

6. Grading System

(No changes are to be made to this section unless the Approved Course Description has been forwarded through the Education Council of Camosun College for approval.)

Standard Grading System (GPA)

0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
