Calendar Description

This course centers on generating, organizing, and expressing ideas in clear and effective written prose. Instruction and practice in writing college-level expository prose, based on appropriate models, form the core. Written assignments total 4,000-4500 words.

Course Outcomes

Students will:

- read mature expository and persuasive prose by student and professional writers
- vary their reading approach for different purposes
- analyze expository prose by identifying controlling ideas, supporting ideas, dominant rhetorical pattern, tone and features of style
- summarize expository prose in own words to reflect coherently the original's ideas, organization and tone.

- write expository prose for various purposes and audiences
- develop a mature writing process which may include prewriting, planning, drafting, conferring, revising, and editing/proofing
- select and use rhetorical patterns purposefully
- write correct, clear, cohesive, and effective English
- vary style purposefully through manipulating sentence rhythms, sentence variety, vocabulary, and figurative language

- research topics for expository papers
- use a variety of sources which may include personal knowledge, interview, print, and other media
- choose to summarize, paraphrase, or directly quote from sources
- integrate the results of research into expository papers
- document sources fully and ethically, according to specified bibliographic conventions

Required Texts and Materials

English 150 Course Pack—Dr. Jodi Lundgren

Aaron, Jane E. and Elaine Bander. The Little, Brown Essential Handbook for Writers, 4th Canadian ed. Pearson, 2011.

A dictionary: The Concise Oxford; Webster's New Collegiate; Gage Canadian are good ones.

- You will need a three ring binder for collecting class handouts and marked copies of your assignments.
- You need to set aside about $10 for making copies of your essays for in-class workshops.
- You must have access to a stapler for when you hand in your assignments. The library has a stapler for students to use, but I don't—so please don't ask.

Assignments

I will distribute detailed instructions on each writing assignment as the course progresses. Be sure to keep a copy of all submitted assignments.

* These assignments form part of the Participation grade. Note that being unprepared for a scheduled workshop results in both lost participation points and a 10% deduction from the final grade for the assignment. See "Policies" below.

^ In-class tests can be made up only by prior arrangement and with valid documentation (such as a doctor's note) explaining your absence on the scheduled test day.

 Participation in a debate is required prewriting activity; without it, I cannot accept the in-class argument essay.

 Since sharing the results of your research with an audience forms a crucial step in the research process, every student must deliver a presentation; otherwise, I cannot accept the research paper.

Format

All assignments written outside of class must be typed (word processed) and double-spaced using a standard 12 point font. Use one-inch margins all around. Number pages in the top right hand corner and use your last name as a header. Staple your papers in the top left-hand corner. I cannot accept papers by email unless otherwise stated. Use the MLA Style to document sources (see Little, Brown 164-84). Also follow the MLA Style by providing the following details on the first page of your essays: your name, the instructor's (my) name, the course name and number, the date, and a specific, relevant title for your paper. "Essay 1" is too vague, and repeating the title of sources you are writing about (e.g. "Harry Potter" for an essay about Harry Potter) is inaccurate. (See Little, Brown 183 for a sample heading.)

Evaluation

We will address the criteria for good college writing throughout the semester. In grading your work, I will be particularly interested in the development I see in revision and from paper to paper within the assignment sequence. I will be looking for evidence of your involvement in the course and of your willingness and your success in working on your writing over the term.

The numerical conversions used at Camosun College are as follows:

A+ = 90-100	B = 73-76	D=50-59
A = 85-89	B- = 70-72	F= below 50
A- = 80-84	C+= 65-69
B+ = 77-79	C = 60-64

Policies

*It is our shared responsibility to develop and maintain a positive learning environment for everyone. As a fellow learner, you are asked to respect the learning needs of your classmates and assist your instructor in achieving this critical goal.

* Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date (unless scheduled to be written in class). Once during the semester, you may hand in an out-of-class, final draft assignment up to three days late (not including weekends), taking a 5% deduction. After this cut-off point, you will forfeit the assignment and receive a 0. No further late assignments will be accepted. In the event that illness or emergency affects your ability to meet a deadline, contact me as early as possible and obtain documentation from a person in authority.

* When outlines or drafts are required for in-class workshops, either missing the workshop or coming to class without an outline or draft (as specified) will result in an automatic deduction of 10% from the final draft grade. This penalty underlines the importance both of writing as a process and of being accountable to your classmates, whose participation grades may depend on their peer reviews of your work.

* A significant portion of your grade for this course is based on participation. In order to engage effectively in class discussions and activities, you will need to be present, prepared, alert, and willing. In-class work depends on interaction with your fellow students in the classroom and cannot be made up. Thus, each missed class activity will have a detrimental effect on your participation grade. Attendance will be recorded.

* Punctuality is a must. Grammar tests always take place at the beginning of class and cannot be made up without a valid excuse.

Most assignments that fall into the participation category will be credited using a check mark system. A 0 indicates a failure to fulfill the basic expectations of the assignment. A √- indicates that the response meets some, but not most, of the expectations of the assignment. A √ indicates a satisfactory response to the assignment. A √(+) indicates that the seeds of powerful work are present, although their potential has not been fully realized. A √+ indicates a fully successful response to the assignment. A √++ indicates an exceptional response that exceeds the basic expectations of the assignment. Participation marks will be tallied at the end of the semester and converted into a numerical score. You may see me to inquire about your standing at any point in the semester.

* Plagiarism, the act of presenting the words, ideas, or data of another as if they were your own, is an academic crime. Camosun College's Student Conduct Policy covers both academic honesty and student behaviour and is outlined on pages 35-37 of the 2010/2011 Camosun College Calendar. See also the red sheet prepared by the Anti-Plagiarism Committee in the English Department.

Part of the purpose of this class is to teach you how to use the ideas of others honestly in your own writing: Chapter 39 of Little, Brown (pages 153-164) gives you detailed information on how to do so. Please see me at any point if you are unsure about your use of sources, or if you are having so much difficulty writing that you are tempted to use someone else's work.

* Disability Resource Centre provides support services to students with a broad range of disabilities to ensure equitable access to post-secondary opportunities. Students with documented disabilities requiring academic and/or exam accommodation should schedule an appointment with Disability Resource Centre as early as possible. If you expect to receive accommodations from the instructor, you must provide me with your DRC form early in the semester.

A Final Word

A smoothly functioning class depends on clear communication all around. Please get in touch with me whenever you want to discuss your ideas, the assignments, my comments, the classroom dynamics, or any other subject related to the class or your writing generally. I check email regularly, and I encourage you to visit me in my office hours. Book an appointment to ensure a spot, or just drop by.

Tentative Outline

The following outline will give you a general overview of the class. The need to adjust the schedule will almost certainly arise, so pay attention to announcements in class and/or over email. I will distribute detailed handouts in class as the course progresses. If you are ever in doubt as to what I expect of you, please ask.
