4. Course Content and Schedule

Students' Responsibilities

- Everyone learns differently. It is up to you to take an active part in the class and to make sure you are getting the nurturing, encouragement, criticism, evaluation, and information that you need. Please do not hesitate to email or phone if you have any questions.

- You should ALWAYS keep a copy of EVERYTHING you hand in for evaluation. Accidents sometimes happen and work may be misplaced.
- You must complete all stories to receive a grade in this course. If your stories are late, they won't receive completion marks, but they must still be handed in. All stories must undergo critique and be revised before they are submitted to the midterm/final portfolio.
- Extensions will be granted only at the discretion of the instructor. If an extension is granted, assignments are penalized 5% per day including weekends up to a maximum of five days. After five days, the assignment will not be accepted.
- Plagiarism will result in an automatic F grade for the work involved. See Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," in the Camosun College Calendar.

Format Requirements for Assignments

- In the left-hand corner, please include your name, my name (Laurie Elmquist), English 254, and the date. As well, each finished story should have a thoughtful title. (No separate title pages, please.) Centre the title.
- All assignments should be written in 12 pt. Font and Times New Roman style. Please double-space your work, and number your pages.
- Formatting is very important to me. It is the way I ensure that everyone submits work of the same length. As you may have noticed, I don't go by word count. I only use a page count. As well, you should always present your work to your peers and instructor in a professional manner, as you would submit it to a magazine for publication.

Instructor's Responsibilities

The instructor will adapt the course appropriately, function as a senior learner, share her own ideas and writing, stimulate and support the learning of others, give every opportunity for success, provide knowledge as needed, facilitate cooperation and community, provide clear instructions and examples for assignments, comment helpfully, return work promptly, and treat students with respect, fairness, and honesty.
