5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

10% - Article Review – due at the beginning of class on the date we discuss the article in class. The instructor has posted a sign-up sheet on her office door (Young 319) – no more than 3 students per section may sign up for any one article. See attached instructions. Late assignments will not be accepted. If you are unable to complete the assignment in time, please contact me and I will choose another topic for you.

10% - Essay Proposal – Due Date: MONDAY OCTOBER 3 or earlier.

20% - Essay - Due Date: The last date to hand in the essay will be 4:30 p.m. on NOVEMBER 16. Unless you have contacted me in advance of the due date to discuss your situation, late work will not be accepted without supporting documentation from a health professional.

20% - Mid-term Exam – Wednesday OCTOBER 19.

25% – Final Exam – to be held during the final exam period DECEMBER 12-20. Students are expected to write their exam on the scheduled date unless they have a medical note. Vacation plans are not considered a valid excuse for missing exams.

15% - Seminar participation – the grade for seminar participation (or discussion) will be based on the quality of student participation. To ensure discussions are effective, students are expected to read and think about the assigned seminar material, and come to seminars prepared to discuss the author's main points Students who miss more than three seminars will forfeit their entire seminar mark***

6. A NOTE ON PLAGIARISM: An author's words (normally a phrase or sentence) must appear in quotation marks and be properly footnoted. When paraphrasing an author's words or ideas the student you must use a footnote to cite your source. Failure to do either of the above constitutes plagiarism. In addition, should a student copy another's work, either on assignments or exams, that too is plagiarism. Plagiarism could result in a failing grade on the assignment, a failing grade for the course, and further disciplinary action by the College. See Student Conduct Policy.

LIBRARY RESOURCES FOR HISTORY

When you need reliable books, articles and websites for essays and research projects, ask a librarian to help you find suitable items. You can go to the Information Desk in the library, or use the online service called AskAway. There is a link to AskAway, as well as the catalogue and library hours, on the library’s homepage at www.camosun.ca/library. The Library gives you access to thousands of articles through online databases.*

To find articles that are relevant to History topics, click on Art/Literature/History at the top of the database list. These databases will be useful:

1. Academic Search (EBSCO) –journals with an academic focus, many full-text
2. Combined CBCA – Canadian magazines & journals, some full-text
3. JStor – full-text, academic journals
4. Humanities Index – index only, some full-text

You can read the articles on any computer with an internet connection, but to gain access you will need your student number (C#####) and library password. Your library password is usually your birthdate in the format MMDDYY. Ask for assistance if this does not work.

* If you cannot use this direct link, follow this path: from the library’s homepage: click on Magazines/Journals/Newspapers, then select Search for articles by topic.
