4. Course Content and Schedule

Classes will consist of lectures and language labs.

Lecture hours: Monday 6:00-7:50pm in Ewing 201
Wednesday 7:00-7:50pm in Ewing 201

Lab hours: Wednesday 6:00-6:50pm in Ewing 112

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

Oral Performance (each 5%)	15%
Chapter Quizzes (each 15%)	45%
Hangeul Quiz	15%
Workbook Assignments	10%
Self Introduction	5%
Class & Lab Attendance/Participation	10%
Total	100%

Oral Performance: At the end of each chapter, a pair or group is to perform a role play based on chapter content. Each student will speak a minimum of 5 sentences in their role play. Each pair or group requires writing a script and handing it in to your instructor before this event. The purpose of this activity is to establish your fluency and accuracy speaking Korean. Criteria for marking this task are available on D2Learn.

Chapter Quizzes: The goal of these quizzes is to facilitate understanding of Korean language taught through each lesson. Each quiz will include vocabulary and grammar features as well as listening comprehension and will be cumulative (e.g. chapter quiz 2 will include chapter 1 and 2 and also chapter quiz 3 will include chapter 1, 2 and 3).

Hangeul Quiz: The objective of this quiz is for students to acquire the basic Hangeul system (Korean alphabet). This test includes identifying target Hangeul sounds, spelling conventions of Hangeul, and basic expressions as well as dictation.

Workbook Assignments: The purpose of this assignment is for students to reinforce learning grammar features that you will study in class. There is no mark for each exercise but I will look for your independent work and effort for consistent completion. Mark will be recorded as complete or incomplete. The due day for the workbook is at the beginning of next class after you learn each grammar features in class. Late assignment including submitting after the class will be counted as incomplete. Your workbook assignment will be announced in class.

Self Introduction: Students will be asked to introduce themselves orally by memorizing a minimum of 5 sentences in Korean and translate Korean into English. Criteria for marking this task are available on D2Learn.

Class & Lab Attendance and Participation: Students are expected to inform the instructor of their absence in advance by email. With doctor's note for your medical problem your absence won't be deducted from the attendance mark. Arriving in class after the class started, there will be a deduction. Students are also expected to participate in class activities sincerely (e.g. practicing a role play).

In-Class Policies

- MAKE-UP for oral performances and quizzes only if you provide a medical note.

- It is expected for students to BE ON TIME FOR CLASS. Your late arrival will interrupt your classmates and lectures/lab activities. Each “late” is counted as half an absence.
- Please TURN OFF any cell phone or turn to the vibration mode during the class.
- Please REFRAIN from unnecessary talking that is not relevant to the class.
- Browsing personal websites (e.g. chatting room) during lab hours is NOT PERMITTED.

Suggestions for Learning Korean

- Listen to the audio materials (vocabulary and dialogue) every day and try to mimic the sound while you are listening.
- Keep a personal glossary of vocabulary and phrases relevant to your daily life.
- Use vocabulary that you have learned in a sentence. If you don't know how to use vocabulary in a sentence, ask your instructor or Korean friends.
- Try to study a little bit every day regularly (e.g. memorizing 5 vocabulary)
- Seek opportunities to talk with people in Korean.
- Don't be afraid of making mistakes.

6. Standard Grading System (GPA)

Percentage	Grade	Description	Grade Point Equivalency
90-100	A+		9
85-89	A		8
80-84	A-		7

50-59	D	Minimum level of achievement for which credit is granted; a course with a "D" grade cannot be used as a prerequisite.	1
0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete : A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.

Temporary Grade	Description
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3 rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
