2. Intended Learning Outcomes

1. In reading literature, students will be encouraged to make connections, consider meaning, make and support inferences, and evaluate. Instructors will select course materials and provide information to enable students to:
  - Analyze literature in the genres of poetry, fiction, non-fiction, and drama from different periods.
  - Analyze literature by men and women from various cultural backgrounds.
  - Identify literary forms, elements, and techniques.
2. In discussing literature, students will be given the opportunity to develop and communicate responses and interpretations using varied methods and resources. Students will be expected to:
  - Distinguish between literal and figurative meaning.
  - Use literary terms such as metaphor, irony, character, setting, and plot.
  - Use vocabulary associated with analyzing fiction, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.
  - Analyze themes.
  - Identify a variety of literary theories.
  - Develop an informed critical response.
3. In writing about literature, students will be expected to explain, support, and illustrate points in essays by:
  - Using a critical approach with appropriate language.
  - Comparing pieces of literature in English.
  - Documenting sources using current MLA bibliographic conventions.

3. Required Texts and Supplies

- (a) Literature: Reading, Writing, Reacting by Kirszner et al. 2nd edition. 2007.

7. Important Notes

- Participation mark will be based on attendance, contributions to in-class discussions and in-class journal entries.
- Because this course emphasizes student participation and discussion, it is essential that all students complete all the readings ahead of class and turn off any electronic devices for the duration of class.
- Students with more than 2 undocumented absences will lose 5% of the participation grade. Students who are absent for an in-class essay will receive zero.

- Write your own papers! Plagiarism is an academic offence that the college takes very seriously. Please see the “red handout” for a detailed discussion of this issue. Papers with any form of plagiarism will receive zero.
- The College provides many services, including a Writing Centre and a Language Help Centre. See Student Services, the College Calendar, or www.camosun.ca for details.
- Students are responsible for knowing the Student Conduct Policy. Copies of this document are available at Student Services, the School Administration Office, or www.camosun.ca
