Course Prerequisites: (A requirement that must be met before entry into this course.)

English 150 and one other 100 level English course or English 150 and Bus 130 for students admitted to BBA, Accounting.

NOTE: A proficient use of grammar, punctuation and spelling is expected and will be factored into assignment grades.

Course Description:

This course offers practice in writing a variety of prose forms. Stress is placed on developing the student's ability to order and structure material into its most effective form. Individual assignments will be written weekly over the semester and range from 500 to 2000 words (course total of 5000-5500 words).

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1) Identify:

- a) Different types of non-fiction prose (e.g., memoir, personal essay, review, editorial, speech, expository essay, research essay).
- b) A variety of rhetorical strategies (e.g., description, narration, comparison and contrast, classification, cause and effect, persuasion).
- c) The relationship among speaker, audience, and material.

2. Outline the structure of a work of non-fiction prose.

3. Evaluate the effectiveness of form, structure, and style (e.g., sentence types, sentence variety, vocabulary, figures of speech) in a range of non-fiction prose, both published and unpublished.

4. Compose different types of non-fiction prose.

5. Compare, select, and employ a variety of structures, rhetorical strategies, and styles.

6. Revise their own writing according to various articulated standards of evaluation (their own, their peers', their instructor's, the marketplace's).

Missed In-Class Essays and Tests:

- Unless you can prove a medical issue with a doctor's note, all in-class assignments/ tests/ essays must be completed in the intended class.
- A missed in-class assignment /test/ essay without a note will be given a grade of zero.
- Failure to notify me of your medical issue within 2 days of the intended class will disqualify you for a make-up assignment and also result in a grade of zero.
- If you already know that you are going to be unable to attend on the date an assignment is scheduled, please come and see me ASAP. If your absence is justifiable, we will determine a re-schedule date as close as possible to the set date.
- Missed work worth less than 3% cannot be made up at another date.

Late Essays:

- Essays are due at the start of class unless otherwise specified.
- Up to 5% per day (including weekends days) will be deducted for lateness. Nothing will be accepted 5 days or more past the due date.
- Requests for extensions will be considered, but only if the request is made in advance.
- I do NOT accept electronic submissions of assignments; I must have a printed version.
- Rewrites are NOT allowed.

Attendance, Readings, Homework, and Participation:

To do well in English 250, you must regularly attend the class.

As with any course, it is also vitally important that you have completed all assigned readings and any exercises or activities indicated in those readings before coming to each class (exception: anything indicated as 'group work' which will be done in class). Further, since our class time will be quite interactive, you must come prepared to actively and intelligently participate. Reading assignments are on attached schedule.

If you do find it necessary to miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed and to receive any extra homework instructions BEFORE the next class and BEFORE contacting me. I'd thus suggest you make a trustworthy friend in the class with whom you can exchange contact information.

About electronics:

- NO electronics of any kind are allowed during lectures, group work, tests, or in-class essay writing situations. This includes laptops and MP3 players.
- ALL cell phones must be turned completely OFF (not to vibrate) and kept out of sight.
