The success in this course is dependent on each student actively participating in both open discussions and group-based activities during class time. In order to fully contribute to these discussions it is imperative that students come prepared to contribute their understanding, opinions, and analysis of the subject materials. Participation marks will be awarded by a combination of self and instructor assessment.

The final exam will be comprised of a number of short essay and short answer questions and will be scheduled during the final exam week. Please note the final exam period runs from April 16-24th inclusive.

The exam must be written on the date it is assigned. No provision will be made to write an exam earlier and a student will only be allowed to write a missed exam on provision of a valid medical certificate attesting to the fact that he/she was ill on the date of the original test. ADDITIONAL COMMENTS AS APPROPRIATE OR AS REQUIRED

Instructional Policies

1. Attendance and Participation

Regular attendance and participation in class contributes to much more enriching learning experience. Completing the assigned readings prior to class will increase your ability to contribute to class in a meaningful way. Students are encouraged to identify current events that directly relate to course content so that we might all learn from these events and apply our knowledge to the real world.

2. Exam Date Changes

No provision will be made to write an exam earlier or later than originally scheduled. All exams must be written at the times and on the dates assigned. A student will only be allowed to write a missed exam by providing a valid medical certificate attesting to the fact that s/he was ill (or suffered an accident) at the time of the assigned test.

3. Late Penalty

Students having a legitimate concern about meeting the due dates should consult with the instructor well in advance. All assignments must be completed and submitted by the date assigned. All late written assignments will be penalized by 20% of the total mark per day. Students may negotiate the late submission of one written assignment in the semester; please come see me if you think you need to make use of this permission as this must be agreed to at least 48 hours before due dates.

4. Written Assignment Requirements

All assignments must be handed to the instructor at the beginning of class; any alternate arrangements need to be negotiated with the instructor. If the submission of an assignment is problematic, come see me well in advance of the submission date.

Written assignments for this course must be typewritten, double-spaced and meet the basic requirements set out in the Criminal Justice Writing Reference Manual. Papers must be properly referenced using the APA referencing format. An undocumented paper will not be accepted.

5. Plagiarism, Cheating and Academic Dishonesty

What is Plagiarism? Plagiarism is the failure to fully, and accurately acknowledge the sources of all information used in your assignments, thereby giving the impression the work is your own. Plagiarism includes the use of quotes, or another author's words, without using quotation marks or giving a proper reference citation to the original author. Plagiarism also includes failing to document the source(s) of paraphrased information/ideas.

If plagiarism, cheating or academic dishonesty can be documented, the penalty will be an automatic "zero" on the assignment in question.

6. Cheating/Academic Dishonesty/Student Conduct

The Criminal Justice Department and the college has a clearly articulated policy on cheating and student conduct. Cheating may result in suspension and the potential loss of a career in the criminal justice field. Please refer to a current College Calendar and the Criminal Justice Orientation Manual.

7. Course Withdrawal

The last day to withdraw from this course without receiving a failing grade or academic penalty is March 13, 2012.

8. Course Completion Requirements

Students must complete all evaluative requirements (human trafficking assignment, oral presentation and paper, exam) to receive a passing grade for this course. Unless granted prior instructor approval, a student who fails to complete any one of the evaluative requirements will automatically receive an "F" grade.

9. Mark/Grade Challenges and Appeals

A student seeking to question a mark assigned by the instructor on any course evaluation component, must clearly articulate in writing the specific element of the assignment being questioned and provide written reasons or arguments supporting a change in the mark. The Student Appeals Procedure is found Camosun College online calendar at:

<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/pdf/academic-policies.pdf>

10. Student Responsibility

It is each student's responsibility to familiarize her/himself with course and college policies. Students experiencing difficulties during the term are encouraged to talk to the instructor at the earliest opportunity.

11. Class Discussion Rules

The first and most fundamental principle for participation in this class is that of respect. This will be expected of all persons present both in and out of class while engaged in the discussion of class material.

Please remember these guidelines during class discussions:

-While participation in discussion is encouraged; remember not to take more than your fair share of class time to present your perspective, analysis, suggestions or opinion.

-your contributions should be couched in respectful language, free of intense emotions, and should not be critical of the presenter, or otherwise personalized. Identify and criticize a statement, point of view, opinion or belief; identify why you disagree with the statement not the messenger.

-speak respectfully to and about groups whether or not they are represented in class. Remarks that stereotype a group or are sexist, homophobic, racist etc. damage the class atmosphere and will be respectfully challenged.

-everyone has the right to make mistakes, even the instructor; this is how learning occurs and it contributes to intellectual growth. Let's be patient and respectful of one another's intellectual and personal growth.

-If speaking in class is really difficult for you, please come see me to discuss other ways of contributing as soon as possible.
