2. COURSE INFORMATION

Course Credit Value: 3

Course Prerequisite: English 150

The instructor will expect to see the standard essay format (which is taught in English 150) in the essays and final exam for this course, and very little lecture time will be devoted to discussion of essay writing. You will also be expected to be able to cite sources according to MLA standards. If you are not confident in either your essay writing or documenting ability, you will want to postpone your enrollment in English 160.

A basic ability with grammar, punctuation and spelling is also expected for all English courses at the 100 level, and these elements will factor into the grading of essays and exams.

Calendar Description:

This course, which is a discussion of fiction, poetry, and drama, introduces students to the study and analysis of literature. Students are exposed to a diverse and challenging range of materials, and are assigned 3 essays minimum. Individual assignments range from 300-2000 words in length (total of 4000-5000 words).

4. COURSE CONTENT AND SCHEDULE - see attached

5. BASIS OF STUDENT ASSESSMENT

1250 word short fiction essay	20%
1250 word drama essay	20%
Midterm: Short Fiction & Novel	20%
Final Exam: Drama & Poetry	30%
 INCLASS WORK: (reading quizzes, paragraphs, presentation)	 10%

SPECIAL NOTE: Be sure to keep all rough drafts and marked material until the end of term

Essays:

- Essays are due at the beginning of class on the dates specified.
- 10% per day will be deducted for lateness.
- Nothing will be accepted after 2 days past due date.
- Requests for extensions will be considered under special circumstances, but only if the request is made at least 24 hours before the due date.
- I do not accept electronic submissions; I must have a printed version.
- I do not allow re-writes.

Tests:

- Unless you can prove a medical emergency with a doctor's note, all tests must be written in class on the date specified.
- A missed test without a medical note will result in a grade of zero for that test.
- If you already know that you are going to be unable to sit for a test on the date scheduled, please come and see me A.S.A.P. If your absence is justifiable, we will schedule you a re-write.
- No assignment worth less than 10% can be re-scheduled or made up at a later date, even with a doctor's note.

Readings:

Even more than in other courses, it is vitally important that you have completed all assigned readings before coming to each 160 class. Since our class time will consist mainly of group discussion, you must also have read the assigned works thoroughly enough to be able to intelligently participate in that discussion. Because of this, I will be giving regular reading quizzes to insure you have done the reading.

Participation and Attendance:

It is quite impossible for you to do well in this course if you do not regularly attend. Class time is your opportunity to clarify your ideas, responses and understanding of the works. Coming to class and participating in discussion will also help you anticipate the test questions and gather material for you essays. A few classes will also allow you to collect 'participation' marks toward your "inclass work" grade. If you do find it necessary to miss a class, you do not need to inform me, but you do need to find out (from a peer) what you missed and complete any extra homework BEFORE the next class. I would also suggest you make a trustworthy friend in the class from whom you can borrow thorough, reliable notes.

About electronics:

- No electronics of any kind are allowed during lectures, tests, exams, or group work. This includes laptops and ipods.
- All cell phones must be turned OFF (not onto vibrate mode) and be put away (out of your sight and mine) at all times. If you are texting, I will ask you to leave.

- No recording devices of any kind are allowed either.
