4. Course Content and Schedule

This is an introductory course in Modern Standard Chinese designed for students with no background in Chinese. The course objective is to provide a systematic introduction to modern Chinese in both its spoken and written forms. The important aspects of the course consist of the acquisition of a thorough grounding in pronunciation, the introduction of basic grammar points and written characters. Classes will be so structured as to provide maximum opportunity for students' participation with the aim of acquiring both fluency and accuracy in the use of the target language.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(a) Assignments	Students should commit to daily practice on Chinese sounds and characters, do the exercises in the exercise books and complete oral and written exercises assigned by the instructor at the end of each class. All assignments are expected to be completed on time.
(b) Quizzes	A test will be given upon completion of each lesson. Term work: 7 tests, recitation, participation	60%
(c) Exams	Mid-term Exam.	15%
	Final Exam. (Oral)	15%
(d) Other	Language Lab. (tests and attendance)	10%

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete : A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.

IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
