METHODS OF EVALUATING YOUR LEARNING

Participation (-1% for each missed class)

Regular attendance and active participation is required. It is expected that you will arrive on time, be attentive, non-disruptive, constructive and respectful.

For example, using headphones, engaging in text messaging, looking at messages, surfing the internet or using any means of disengaging with your classmates and the learning process is not accepted in this class. You will be asked to leave the classroom setting.

You are expected to complete the assigned readings before coming to class. This often becomes increasingly more difficult as the semester moves along and as the completion of assignments and preparation for exams takes a great deal of your time. I would strongly recommend that you use some type of day book where you can keep track of each weeks reading, exams and other expectations being placed on you.

It will be important to keep aware of current events throughout the semester and their impacts on the criminal justice system. Please utilize news media outlets daily to stay current of these developments.

Exams (50%)

Three exams are scheduled for this course.

October 2nd	(15%)
October 30th	(15%)
Final Exam week	(20%)

Each will sample your recollection of the content from the textbook readings as well as the material addressed in class (guest speakers, power point, video presentations, group presentations, etc). Each exam will not be comprehensive and will be based on the material covered between exam periods (ie. The final exam will be based on material covered from November 1st to the course end date). That being said, some of the latter material covered will be based on concepts covered during earlier portions of the course. This is a content heavy and condensed course so be sure to actively read your assigned readings. The exam format may include true / false, fill in the blank, short answer and multiple choice.

Group Presentation (20%)

Due Date: November 20th

The purpose of this assignment is to use the appreciative inquiry style of learning to explore and report back to the class what you have learned. In groups of four (4), Examine the role, responsibilities and key players within your agency. You can examine harm reduction, crime reduction, victimization and overall community safety. This can be done creatively by using a recent crime or political happening relative to your agency.

Prepare a two (2) page report on your agency to be put on the D2L content. This is due at the time of the class presentation.

Prepare a ten (10) minute class presentation to be done on November 20th or 22nd during class. Each group will be graded using the following criteria:

Quality: Freedom from errors and mistakes, accuracy, quality of work in general.
 Quantity: The actual work output of each student, relative to their other group members.
 Initiative and Creativity: Ability to plan, take initiative and ability to be constructive.
 Effort: The degree to which the student does his/her best and is motivated.
 Dependability: To the extent group member can be depended upon and to do it properly.
 Cooperativeness: Willingness to work harmoniously with others in getting the job done.
 Group Interaction: The polite attention an individual gives other group members.
 Skills: Knowledge of the techniques, skills, processes, equipment and procedures.
 Accuracy: Content is correct, recent and relevant to class purpose.

You will want to address the following questions in both your presentation and write-up. At a minimum your group should be able to answer the following questions about your organization:

1. What is the formal name of the organization and, if they are part of government, where do they fit in? (eg. What branch or ministry do they belong to or are answerable to?)
2. What are the functions or responsibilities of this organization? How does it relate to other parts of the justice system?
3. How large is the organization, is it local, provincial or national?
4. What are some (is a) pertinent issue that the organization is dealing with either at present or in their past? Describe how decisions made on this issue could affect other components of the justice system.

Class time will be given at various points throughout the semester to meet as a group and discuss progress, concerns and successes with myself. Please use this time effectively or I will not continue to utilize class time for this endeavour.

MP/MLA Assignment (30%)

Due Date: November 15th (Beginning of class)

Individually, research your local MP and MLA and their positions on justice related issues. Be sure to research their backgrounds and answer the following questions;

1. What is their role in Parliament? Do they have a Cabinet posting or are they a backbencher? Are they with the governing party or are they in opposition?
2. What do they consider to be the most important justice matter faced in their constituency?
3. What is their perspective on any of the following issues; Police/RCMP, victims, offenders, the judiciary, Crown Counsel, corrections, or aftercare/social service agencies.

You must choose the MP & MLA from the jurisdiction where you are currently residing on September 11th, 2012. Please place your current address in the introduction of your paper.

Prepare a 1 to 1.5 page report on each representative (2-3 pages total) that will be submitted on the D2L by November 15th at the beginning of class.

INSTRUCTIONAL POLICIES

1. Class Preparation

You are expected to complete the assigned readings before coming to class. This often becomes increasingly more difficult as the semester moves along and as the completion of assignments and preparation for exams takes a great deal of your time. I would strongly recommend that you use some type of day book where you can keep track of each assignment, readings, exams and other expectations being placed on you.

2. Late Penalty

All assignments must be completed and submitted on the date and at the time assigned. The penalty for late assignments will be 10% per day. An extension can be granted only with at least 48 hours notice and will only be granted for one assignment per student for the semester. Group presentations will receive a zero grade if not completed on the scheduled date. Procrastination can 'get the best of us' so be certain to manage the time you need to complete assignments.

3. Plagiarism, Cheating & Academic Dishonesty

Please see the College calendar and the Writing Reference Manual for the Criminal Justice Program

<http://camosun.ca/policies/Educatio-Academic/E-2-Student-Services-&-Support/E-2.5.pdf>

4. Course Completion Requirements

You must complete all evaluative requirements (three exams, presentation and assignment) to receive a passing grade in this course. Unfortunately, if you do not complete all requirements, you will receive an F grade. All late work must be handed in by the scheduled final exam start time or you will not write the final exam.
