Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

We will be discussing texts and writing in every class, sometimes working on assignments that will be handed in for assessment. It is therefore essential to your grade that you attend and participate in all classes.

Late assignments may lose marks at the rate of 5% per day. If there are known circumstances that will hinder you from completing an assignment on time, please speak with me as soon as you can.

Students who fail to complete any assignments listed below by the final class date, or who fail to achieve at least D on the final examination, will fail the course. It is up to you to make sure that all of your assignments are handed in.

Out-of-class assignments are to be typed and double-spaced. Assignments that are not double-spaced will be handed back ungraded. Leave 2.5 cm. (1 inch) margins on all sides. Indent the first line of each paragraph (use Tab); do not leave additional spaces between paragraphs. Please don't forget to put your full name on your paper. Use MLA documentation style. (We will be practising this in class.)

There will be written guidelines for each major assignment.

Please see Class Schedule for due dates of the following assignments.

I suggest that you keep all of your essays and other writing assignments, along with drafts. I may ask to see previous work.

Assignments

Short essay (10%)

Poetry Panel (15%)

Long Essay Proposal (5%)

Long Essay (20%)

The final exam will be set during the formal exam period, December 10-15 & Dec. 17 and 18

NB: The course is not over until the end of the exam period

Grading System

Essays receive complex evaluation. I look for organization, originality of ideas, and effectiveness of details used in support. Accurate grammar and spelling are, of course, essential to good writing. I also look for your particular developing voice or style.
