2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Describe the four fields of anthropology in relation to what they have to offer our understanding of contemporary human issues.
2. Outline holism, cultural relativism as well as the comparative, evolutionary, and bio-cultural approaches – as they relate to our understanding of the anthropological perspective.
3. Discuss the trends in human evolution in order to understand the modern human species.
4. Explain the importance of archaeological investigation to modern society.
5. Describe the basic structure of language as it relates to society and culture.
6. Define culture, including its characteristics and structures, in order to understand its centrality to anthropology.
7. Examine and analyze specific examples such as family structure, religion, social organization, and culture change in relation to anthropologic discourse
8. Address ethnocentrism as a barrier to understanding other cultures.

3. Required Materials

- (a) Text: Kottak, Conrad and Gezon, Lisa (2012) Culture. New York, NY: McGraw-Hill
- (b) Articles: listed below; links to the assigned articles are provided on D2L

4. Basis of Student Assessment

(a) Article/film summaries (15%)

One of the most important academic skills is the ability to read for meaning and to summarize an article or a film in your own words. This assignment will give you practice to develop or refine this skill. Choose two articles from the assigned readings below and write a summary of each for a maximum of 5 marks per summary. In addition, you will do a summary of one of the films shown in class (see class schedule for when those films will be shown) also for a maximum of 5 marks. It would be prudent of you to do one article summary and receive feedback before attempting an in-class film summary.

Due dates: the article summaries are due at the beginning of the lecture for which the articles have been assigned (see class schedule). The film summary is due at the beginning of the next class after the film.

Assigned Articles: Links for these articles can be found at our D2L site.

Can You Dig It? The Economist

Eating Christmas in the Kalahari, Richard Lee

Fa'afafine – Samoan boys brought up as girls

When Brothers Share a Wife, Melvyn Goldstein

Neanderthals, Humans Interbred – First Solid DNA Evidence, Ker Than

Writing a summary:

- Read the article looking for the author's main point or points and the main conclusions/outcomes. (Hint: you should find the main point in the first couple of paragraphs and in the conclusion.)
- Be sure to include the author's name (if known) and title of the work in the first sentence of your summary.
- Write the summary in your own words. Keep it short, try for about 7 sentences.
 - Write out the main point in a clear, understandable way.
 - Relay the main results and author's conclusion in a clear, understandable way.
 - Include any important supporting evidence, but avoid the trivial information.
- Write in the present tense.
- The prose must be clear and free of grammatical and spelling errors.
- Do not add your own opinions, ideas, or interpretations. The purpose of writing a summary is to accurately represent what the author wanted to say, not to provide a critique.

Format: I prefer that you type and double space your article summaries.

(b) Cultural Survival Essay (15%)

Due: Wednesday Feb. 27 at the beginning of class

In preparation for doing this assignment, read Chapter 13 “Global Assaults on Local Autonomy” and “Indigenous Peoples”. Then visit the webpage of the organization Cultural Survival. Choose two issues between 2009 to the present that threaten the cultural survival of indigenous peoples. Examine the photographs; watch the videos; read the articles. The following is an outline of what your essay should look like. It should be approximately 600-750 words in length, type-written in a suitable font such as Times New Roman 12 point and double spaced.

1. Introduction: introduce your essay and tell the reader what it will be about.
2. In one or two paragraphs, geographically locate the indigenous peoples and summarize who they are.
3. In two or three paragraphs, clearly summarize the issues that these peoples are facing.
4. Using cross-cultural comparison, discuss the threats to the cultural survival of the two groups and how they are dealing with these threats. (Two or three paragraphs)
5. Write a concluding paragraph.
6. Citing sources: At the end of your essay, provide a complete citation for the on-line sources using APA format. Do the same for your textbook if you use it. Acknowledge any specific information or quoted words in your essay by numbering the phrase or sentence and using footnotes or endnotes providing paragraph or page numbers.

Your essay must be written in your own words. All relevant information and evidence must be presented. Your essay must be well-organized and free of repetition. The prose must be clear and free of grammatical and spelling errors.

(c) Exams (70%): There are 3 exams. Exam 1 is worth 20% and Exams 2 and 3 are each worth 25%. The exams are not cumulative. Exams 1 and 2 are written during scheduled class time (see class schedule) and Exam 3 is written during the College’s Exam Period. It is your responsibility to be present for all exams. Do not make plans to leave Victoria at the end of the term until you know your exam dates.

All exams must be attempted in order to complete this course. Exams must be written at the scheduled times unless prior notice has been given to the instructor and approval received to write at a different time. If a student misses an exam due to illness, s/he must present a medical note to write a makeup exam. There will be no exceptions. Additional exams/assignments are not available to students in order to upgrade poor marks.

5. Grading System

Standard Grading System (GPA)

0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
