ADDITIONAL COMMENTS AS APPROPRIATE OR AS REQUIRED

Important Course Policies

1. Participation in this course requires a climate of respect and collaboration. This means offering peers constructive feedback, and it means commitment in class. Also, obviously, you can't participate if you aren't here.
2. Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Late assignments will be accepted for one full week after the initial due date with a penalty of 10% per day, but these assignments will receive no written comments (only a grade). After one week, late assignments will not be accepted at all. Please keep track of deadlines. You are welcome to discuss your work with me at any time during office hours.
3. If you miss in-class work, you will receive a zero (unless you can prove a medical emergency).
4. Please be careful when using other people's words or ideas. Using them without identifying the author constitutes fraud (plagiarism) and can have a lasting impact on this course and your future studies.

While plagiarism in this course may have different boundaries than in an academic course, the onus is still on you to create original work. See me if you are in any doubt about where to draw the line between your work and someone else's.
