2. Intended Learning Outcomes

(No changes are to be made to these Intended Learning Outcomes as approved by the Education Council of Camosun College.)

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to describe and explain (and in some cases critically assess):

1. Identify those forms of political behaviour that can be considered "extreme," and identify the ways different people distinguish between "normal" and "extreme" politics.
2. Describe the causes of political extremism, including some of the different competing explanations.
3. Identify a wide range of individuals and organizations that have taken, or are still involved in, "extreme politics."
4. Identify and critically evaluate the main arguments that are used to justify different forms of political extremism.

3. Required Materials

- (a) Texts - "Extreme Politics – 2013." This is available for free on the instructor's website: <http://lambertson.wordpress.com/>.

4. Course Content and Schedule

(This section can include: class hours, lab hours, out of class requirements and/or dates for quizzes, exams, lectures, labs, seminars, practicums, etc.)

Lectures: Tuesday and Wednesday – 11:30-12:50 – Young 211.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(This section should be directly linked to the Intended Learning Outcomes.)

- (a) Assignments – one term paper, worth 40% of the final grade; this paper can be rewritten and resubmitted after your instructor has graded it. The higher of the two grades will be official.
- (b) Quizzes – three multiple choice tests, each worth 20%, for a total of 60%.
- (c) Exams – none during examination week.
- (d) Class participation – an optional 2%. This is only for students who contribute in a very positive way to the lectures (asking questions, constructively debating with the teacher). Any student who is too shy to speak out can still in theory achieve a perfect grade.

Students who do not want to speak up in class are encouraged to participate by sending questions (as well as constructive criticism and comments) to the instructor, or speaking to him during office hours.
