2. D2L

D2L

To access the course website on D2L;

- 1) Open browser (i.e., Internet Explorer)
- 2) Type in: <http://online.camosun.ca/>
- 3) Next, enter your user name followed by your last name and the day of your birth. For example denise.iacobucci22 for born on June 22nd.
- 4) Then enter your password which (if it is your first time) will be your date of birth in mmdyy format. For example 062274 for June 22nd, 1974.
- 5) Once into D2L you will be required to change your password (if this is your first time accessing D2L).

- Lecture notes will be available through the course page, 24 hours after lecture. I will bring a hardcopy of the notes to class with me. It is important to state that web-notes ONLY cover information from PowerPoint. These notes represent only about 50% of the information presented in lecture. Therefore, if you miss a class, please make sure that you can get the notes from a friend or classmate.

3. Reserve Readings: There are many items on reserve in the library for students. These items are meant to support lecture material and provide resources for students when working on their course assignments.

4. Course Content and Schedule

Course Content and Schedule

1. There is one 2-hour lecture each week.
2. There is one 1- hour seminar per week. (Your student class schedule informs you of your assigned seminar section.)

I believe participation and attendance is very important. If you must miss class, call me at 370-3221 or e-mail me. If I am not available please leave a message on either my voice mail or e-mail.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

Evaluation for Psych 252 will consist of three tests (55%), one research review paper (20%), one team presentation (15%), one article review (6%) research paper proposal (1%), and a variety of seminar activities including your attendance and in-class assignments (3%).

1. Tests (55%): There will be three tests in total covering each unit of the course which includes the textbook, assigned readings, videos, case studies, and lecture notes. These tests will not be cumulative and will be comprised of multiple choice, short and long answer questions.
2. Research Paper Proposal (1%): Students are asked to submit a research paper proposal that includes a thesis statement and key research references in order to provide and opportunity for instructor feedback and ensure that the research paper will meet APA research writing standards.
3. Research Review Paper (APA) (20%): A research review paper is one that gathers the most recent relevant information about a topic, organizes it and presents a summary of findings. A typical topic would be the current state of theories or models of the cause of anti-social personality disorder. This paper can be between eight and 10 pages long, exclusive of the title page and reference list. It needs to include “several” sources (10 is about the average), mostly primary sources. The reference list should contain only sources actually used for the paper. See the Research Paper Guidelines in the D2L materials and seminar hand-out.
4. Article Review of Research (6%) You will be selecting an academic journal article on a topic related to the course and/or your research paper. Your task is to provide a two-page, APA style, critical summary of the theory and presented in the article and what was discovered in the research presented. A detailed outline of the expectations and guidelines for the article review will be presented during the first two weeks of seminar.
5. Team Seminar Presentations (15%): You will be selecting a team and developing a short presentation (25 to 28 minutes) and brochure (fact sheet) on a topic of your choice that relates to course material covered during weeks of presentations. A detailed outline of the expectations for the presentation will be circulated during the first two weeks of seminar. Time will be provided to you during your seminar to work on this presentation. All teams will submit a detailed outline of planned presentation one week prior to their presentation date. This includes visuals and media clips for instructor review. Following your team’s presentation, each team member will evaluate one another and submit this evaluation to the instructor. These evaluations will factor into the instructor’s evaluation of each team member.
  - Teams will submit and outline of presentation – one week prior to presentation time. No outline = no presentation.
6. Seminar Activities (3%): These include 5-point quizzes, evaluations, and reflection questions done in seminars. Students need to be present in seminar to receive credit for seminar activities. There are NO make-ups for these activities.

Assignment/ Test	Due DATE	% of Final Grade	Material Covered
Test 1		19%	Chapters 1 to 4
Research Paper Proposal		1%	Any topic in course in terms of criminal behavior and treatment
Article Review		6%	APA formatted (2 page review)
Presentation		15%	Any topics in course using the Presentation Guidelines provided in Seminar on Day 1 of course  All presentation outlines are due ONE WEEK prior to PRESENTATION DATE chosen in the first 2 weeks of class. No outline= no presentation
Test 2		19%	Chapters 5, 7, 8 &10
Research Paper	April 5th	20%	Any topic in course as developed and approved in your Research Paper Proposal
Test 3		17%	Chapters 6, 9, 11, & 12
Seminar Activities		3%	Weekly Checks on Material Covered
TOTAL		100%

All work and assignments must be handed in on the due date. My preference, for papers, is that you email them to me at jacobucciD@camosun.ab.ca ; however it is important that students receive an e-mail confirmation from me that I have a hard copy of their papers. This way I have a permanent record of the paper. If an emergency or serious problem comes up prior to the exam or due date you may apply for an extension. This must be done in person before, preferably well before, the date in question. Work occasionally goes missing at an institution so you are responsible for keeping a copy of all work handed in until all final grades have been posted. A good way to avoid lost work is to hand your work in as an e-mail attachment. All written work must be in APA format. APA guidelines and resources will be reviewed in the first two weeks of seminar.

6. Grading System

CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

I expect students to follow certain standards of conduct:

1. All students are expected to follow the College's Student Conduct Policy - see below.
2. In order for students to earn marks towards the 3% seminar activities, students need to be in attendance to participate in seminar activities/assignments. There will be no make-up opportunities without a doctor's note.
3. Assignments that are copied (identical or plagiarized) between students will be given 0% for ALL students with identical work. If you want to work cooperatively, consult with me ahead of time.
4. Tests must be written as scheduled. Make-up tests will only be allowed with proper documentation. You must contact the instructor prior to the test, and provide documentation within 7 days of the missed test date to be eligible for the make-up test.
5. Late work will only be accepted in extreme cases. Please schedule your time to meet all due dates.
6. Work must be used for this course only.

7. It is college policy that "If an instructor remains convinced that there has been a violation [such as plagiarism or cheating], he or she may assign a grade of F for the work involved, or for the course..."
