2. Intended Learning Outcomes

(No changes are to be made to these Intended Learning Outcomes as approved by the Education Council of Camosun College.)

This Fall course plus the Winter course: FREN 221 have been designed to afford students a working knowledge of French literature, while being introduced to the different literary genres of the time period studied, and developing all four language abilities (listening, speaking, reading and writing). Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Recognize the most common literary devices (e.g., personification, métaphore, comparaison) and the simplest characteristics of versification (rimes, syllabes, etc.).
2. Analyze and respond to authentic literary works.
3. Compare and contrast authors and their works from the Middle Ages to the 18th century and synthesize their thoughts both orally and in writing.
4. Write different types of composition such as text commentary and explanation, and 1500-word essay.

3. Required Materials

Sold in the college bookstore :

Moments littéraires 2e ed (Hirsch & Thompson) (same text for FR 221)

Andromaque by Racine

Candide by Voltaire
