2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Describe the components and rationale for the experimental methodologies used to acquire psychological knowledge.
2. Describe the difficulties inherent in psychological research and conduct thoughtful critiques of select studies.
3. Design and conduct studies of psychological topics and present the outcomes in a clear, logical fashion.
4. Apply psychological concepts to the study of neuroscience, sensation, perception, learning, memory, intelligence, and language.

The outcomes will be measured by a combination of examinations, assignments, presentations, group work, and discussions.

3. Required Materials

Text: Gerrig, R.J., Zimbardo, P.G., Desmarais, S., & Ivanko, T. (2012). Psychology and Life. (2nd Canadian ed.). Toronto: Pearson.

4. Course Content and Schedule

Course Content:

This course familiarizes students with the major findings and issues associated with the topics of theoretical perspectives in psychology, research methodology, biological bases of behaviour, sensation, perception, consciousness, sleep, dreams, learning, memory, cognitive processes, and intelligence. Lectures will not only cover material presented in the assigned readings but will also show how to apply this information to real-life situations and will evaluate the practical significance of reported effects with in-class demonstrations whenever possible. In addition, in order to make learning of the material as interesting as possible, questions will be posed in class in a fun and engaging environment.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

Your course grade will be based on the total number of points you receive on three examinations, eleven quizzes, and an assignment. Each of these components of your course grade is described in detail below. You can check with the instructor at any time during the semester for your current class standing and you are invited to discuss any concerns about your grade.

Each requirement will receive the following weight in determining your final grade:

Midterm Exam #1:	20%
Midterm Exam #2:	20%
Final Exam:	40%
Quizzes:	10%
Assignment:	10%

6. Grading System

Standard Grading System (GPA)

60-64	C		2
50-59	D	Minimum level of achievement for which credit is granted; a course with a "D" grade cannot be used as a prerequisite.	1
0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services, or the College web site at camosun.ca.
