Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3 rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

Ateah, C.A., Kail, R.V., & Cavanaugh, J.C. (2009) Human development: A lifespan view (2nd Canadian ed.). Toronto, Ont.: Nelson.

Course Description: (Calendar description)

Students will explore human development from conception until death, focusing on critical milestones achieved across the ages in the areas of physical, cognitive, and social development. Cultural diversity of experience will be examined, as well as modern theoretical models attempting to explain human development.

Course Objectives:

This course is an introduction to the field of lifespan development. The objective of this course is to examine a comprehensive view of the developmental changes from conception through death, and to present explanations of those changes. Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. summarize the main theories relating to the study of lifespan development.
2. describe the physical, cognitive and social changes that occur across the lifespan.
3. explain the impact of culture and diversity on development across the lifespan.
4. apply developmental theory and research techniques to an individual case study of human development.

Course Structure:

The course is delivered on the Camosun Desire2Learn system. All course materials are posted online. Reading the textbook is essential. There are online quizzes, written assignments, and online discussions. Students will need to be on campus to write 2 tests during the semester. Details will be given at the orientation session in the first week of classes.

ACADEMIC CONDUCT POLICY

There is an Academic Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, Registration, and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
