(No changes are to be made to these Intended Learning Outcomes as approved by the Education Council of Camosun College.)

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Outline the legislative basis, structure and functions of the various components of the Canadian criminal justice system.
2. Identify how each component of the criminal justice system interrelates with other components and with the larger society within which it operates.
3. Track the process of an accused person through the critical decision-making points of the Canadian criminal justice system.
4. Identify and critically discuss contemporary issues affecting the structure and operations of the Canadian criminal justice (e.g. youth justice, female offenders and Aboriginal justice).

3. Required Materials

I agonized over what text to pick for this year and when I discovered the one I wanted would cost you $110... I bailed. Instead, I have three texts that will be on reserve for you. There are readings to do for this course, but you must go to the library (the place with all the books) and take out the text on the 2hr loan period. I've done this in the past and it works really well. Just don't leave your reading until the night before an exam. There won't be any texts available! Do your readings as the term progresses – before a class is always best. Take notes as you read that you can use to review for the two exams

4. Course Content and Schedule

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(This section should be directly linked to the Intended Learning Outcomes.)

A. COURT REPORT – 25%

There are three steps to this assignment. First up, pick a team of 3. Just to be clear, not 1 or 2... 3. That's the easy part. Next up, go hang around the courthouse downtown or the one in Colwood (yup, there is one). You need to observe a few criminal matters in progress. See some first appearances, bail hearings, a pre-lim, a trial, a sentencing... poke your heads into various courtrooms and see what kind of criminal matters you can watch. That's not too tough. Now the hard part... each of your crack team of 3 will write a 2 page part of a 6 page overview of your criminal court experience. The report is marked as a whole – not individually. So... that keeps you all working as a team for the awesome mark you get (sadly for some that will be a C). The 3 parts of the paper can be, for example, what you did in court, what you thought about the processes you saw, and how what you saw fits in the greater criminal justice system as a whole.

This is due in class on November 17th. As there is no class on November 10th, you will be using some of that class time to work as a group on your court report.

B. COW – 10%

That means Crime Of the Week. At the start of each class we will talk about recent items in the news that relate to criminal law. Throughout the term you must bring in TWO recent articles that relate to criminal law and the criminal justice system. Your sources can be the Times Colonist, some other local newspaper, The Globe and Mail, a reliable Internet site (and just so you know, Wikipedia and Perez Hilton do not count), or some other source like that. You need to briefly tell us in class about your COW. You will hand in the article you found and a one paragraph synopsis of the article with a statement of how you feel it fits into the Canadian Criminal Justice System. Each is out of 5%.

WARNING: do not leave this until the end of term. We don't do COW all the time.

C. EXAMS

There will be two exams.

First Exam 25% - October 20th in class

Second Exam 40% - during final exam period on a date set by the college.

These dates don't budge. You miss an exam... you fail. Nice and simple. Exams will be true/false, multiple choice, short answer format. Exams are cumulative – which means they cover the whole term.
